3) The Chief Executive may adjust the trading hours upon the occurrence of an event that prevents adherence to the set trading hours or in the event that the Council makes a decision to adjust the standard trading hours.

Trading Sessions

17. Pre-Open

1) During pre-open, orders can be entered, deleted or amended. However, no trades take place. Orders shall be held in the ATS but not forwarded to the execution engine.

2) The session status will be displayed as “PRE-OPEN”.

3) Price information shall not be displayed in the order book during pre-open and no trades shall take place.

4) Only Limit price orders can be entered, amended or cancelled.

5) No market orders shall be entered during pre-open. If submitted it will be rejected.

6) The price input for an order shall be based on the equity reference price of the equity security and shall be within its price spread.
7) Orders with FOK, IOC, disclosed quantity and minimum fill attributes will not be accepted by the ATS during Pre-Open.
8) The order price input shall be based on the reference price of the security and must be within its price spread.

18. Opening Auction
1) The opening price of each equity security shall be calculated by the ATS during the opening auction.

2) The opening price of each equity security shall be within the daily allowed price movement limits from the equity reference price of the previous trading session.

3) The opening price of an equity security shall be the price at which the greatest number of equity securities are matched.

4) In case of a tie between many prices, the price at which the maximum number of shares are traded shall be the opening price.

5) Valid orders from the previous day’s trading session shall participate in the opening auction, preserving their time priority.

6) Where there are no trades in an equity security during the opening auction, the opening price for continuous trading shall be the equity reference price of the equity security in the previous trading session.

7) All orders that can be matched at the opening price are executed at the same price.

8) All orders that are not matched during the opening auction shall be automatically transferred to continuous trading and registered in the order book in priority of first price and then time.

19. Continuous Trading
1) This period covers the trading operations where new orders are continuously entered into the system.

2) Incoming orders are checked against existing orders in the order book. An attempt is made to match each incoming order and thereby trigger a transaction or several transactions.

3) An order will be matched with the best opposite order and subsequent best orders until partly or fully executed or no further matching is possible.

4) During continuous trading, the session status will be displayed as “OPEN”.

5) Orders registered in the order book in priority of first price and then time shall be entered and matched on a continuing basis during continuous trading.
6) The best price of a buy transaction shall be the lowest sell order and best price of the sell transaction shall be the highest buy order in the order book.

7) The criteria for execution during continuous trading are as follows:

   a) Price Priority; Where the highest bid and the lowest offer have precedence over all other orders. Orders are ranked by price sequence in the order book.

   b) Time Priority; When orders are at the same price, the earliest one takes priority over those entered later. If a large order is placed with a smaller disclosed quantity (hidden orders) and the disclosed quantity is executed, the order will lose its time priority.

   c) Market Orders; Here price is given the highest priority in the system. The ATS will attempt to match the order until either the entire volume is matched or no further matching is possible.

20. Closing Session

1) The closing session is a short session after the end of the continuous trading.

2) The ATS will compute the closing price for each security being the last execution price during the trade day.

3) Trading Participants shall be allowed thirty (30) minutes after the close of the trading session to request the Exchange to make trade corrections.

4) Requests for trade corrections shall be made in writing, by electronic mail or by facsimile by all the Trading Participants involved in the transaction.

5) Trade corrections and amendments shall be made in accordance with Rule 44 of these rules.

6) Where the Exchange approves a request for a correction the Exchange shall make the necessary adjustment to the trade.

7) All trade corrections shall be made before the computation of the equity reference price for each equity security.

8) The ATS will process time in force order attributes and any unmatched orders will be automatically deleted. Valid GTC and GTD orders will be transferred to the next market day.
PART V – ORDER TYPES & QUALIFIERS

21. Types of orders
1) The two types of orders that can be placed in the ATS are;
   a) Market Orders
   b) Limit Orders

22. Market orders
1) A market order is an order to buy or sell a security at the best price or prices prevailing in the market at that point in time.
2) For a market order no price is specified but the volume must be indicated.
3) The ATS gives the highest priority to price hence market orders have priority of execution over limit orders.
4) Only Minimum Fill attribute is applicable to market orders.
5) Market orders cannot be amended.

23. Limit Orders
1) A Limit Order specifies the maximum buying price or the minimum selling price.
2) The volume of the order must be indicated.
3) The ATS will attempt to match the order until either the entire volume is matched or no further matching is possible within the limit price.
4) Unless Fill Or Kill (FOK) or Immediate Or Cancel (IOC) are specified, the unmatched volume will remain in the order book until the indicated expiration time.
5) Limit orders can have the following attributes:
   i) Qualifiers
   ii) Time in force
   iii) Disclosed/Hidden quantity

24. Qualifiers
1) The following order qualifiers modify the execution conditions of an order based on volume, time and price constraints.
   a) Fill or Kill (FOK)
   b) Immediate or Cancel (IOC)/ Take or Kill
25. Fill or Kill (FOK)
1) An order qualified as Fill or Kill requires the immediate purchase or sale of a specified quantity, at a given price or better. If the whole order cannot be filled immediately, it is cancelled.
2) These orders do not get registered in the order book.
3) FOK orders cannot be entered during pre-opening session.

26. Immediate or Cancel (IOC)/ Take Or Kill
1) An order qualified as immediate or cancel shall be executed immediately upon entry if there is a matching order in the system.
2) An order qualified as immediate or cancel shall be cancelled immediately upon entry if there is no matching order in the system.
3) Where an order qualified as immediate or cancel is partly executed, the remainder shall be immediately cancelled.
4) Orders qualified as immediate or cancel shall not be entered during pre-open.
5) It shall require the immediate purchase or sale for the whole or part of the specified quantity at the specified or better price.
6) Where no immediate execution occurs the order is cancelled. If the order is partly executed, the remainder is immediately cancelled.

27. Time in Force
1) Time in force attributes limit the lifetime of an order in the order book. If an order does not indicate a time condition, it is only valid for the trading session day on which it was input.
2) The time in force attributes include;
   a) Good Till Cancelled
   b) Good Till Day
   c) Day Order

28. Good Till Cancelled (GTC)
1) A GTC order remains valid until it is automatically cancelled by the system on the expiry date being a date not later than thirty (30) days from the date on which it was input.
2) GTC orders cannot have Disclosed/Hidden Quantity and Minimum Fill attributes.
29. Good Till Day (GTD)
1) A GTD order remains valid for a fixed number of days and if it is not executed within the validity period it shall expire at the end of the final day. It shall be automatically deleted from the list of pending orders.
2) GTD orders cannot have Disclosed/Hidden Quantity and Minimum Fill attributes.

30. Day Order (DO)
1) The order is valid until the close of the trading day.
2) Day orders shall be automatically cancelled at the end of the trading day.

31. No Qualifiers
1) Orders will be executed at the specified or better price.
2) Where a partial execution occurs, the remaining volume will stay in the order book.

32. Disclosed/Hidden Quantity (Iceberg)
1) The order size is revealed at the disclosed quantity and not at the full order quantity.
2) The disclosed quantity should be in multiples of 100 securities and the hidden quantity will not be visible to the market.
3) The disclosed quantity will cause execution to occur in blocks of disclosed quantity.
4) When the disclosed quantity is matched, a new order with the same initial volume is generated automatically and given a new time stamp.
5) The process will continue until the entire hidden quantity is matched or the order is cancelled or expired.
6) The disclosed quantity attribute is not valid for FOK or IOC orders.
7) Disclosed quantity attribute is only valid for Day orders.

33. Minimum Fill
1) The ATS operators can specify a minimum fill for an order, that is, a minimum quantity of securities he is willing to buy or sell.
2) The minimum fill must be a minimum of 100 securities.
3) Minimum fill attribute is only valid for Day orders.
34. Order Input
1) All orders shall be entered by ATS operators in the ATS through their Trading Console which shall then be processed by the ATS for validation, acceptance and execution.
2) Once the order is accepted by the ATS it shall be automatically time stamped and allocated an order ID which shall be used for all future references to the order.
3) Orders input into the ATS shall be anonymously displayed to the market.
4) A Trading Participant shall be solely responsible for the accuracy of details of orders entered into the ATS system in accordance with these rules.
5) The order entry instructions for equity securities shall include:
   a) Security code
   b) SCD Account
   c) An indication whether it is a buy or sell order
   d) Quantity
   e) Price
   f) Limit or Market Order
   g) Order attributes
6) Following the entry of an order, the ATS shall validate the order by confirming that the seller’s SCD account holds the required number of securities and that the same are available for trading.
7) Subject to clients instructions, ATS Operators shall use their best endeavors to buy and sell securities on the same trading day following the receipt of instructions from their respective clients, if the Trading Session is open or if not at the next available Trading Session.
8) An ATS Operator must stamp client orders to denote time of receipt and acceptance and must submit client bids and offers in the ATS promptly, for each security, for each individual order in the order in which they were received.
9) Where an order fails validation, it shall be rejected and the reasons for such rejection given.
10) ATS Operators taking purchase orders from Institutional Investors shall ensure that such investors have in place financial arrangements, including bank guarantees, with a Custodian to ensure funds are available at the Clearing Bank prior to Settlement Time.

35. Matching of Orders
1) All orders shall be ranked in the order book by reference to first price and then time.
2) Priority shall be given to the highest buy orders and the lowest sell orders.
3) When buy or sell orders are entered at the same buy or sell price priority shall be given to the earliest buy or sell order on a first-in-first-out basis.
4) Where no order qualifiers are specified for equity securities, orders will be executed at the specified or better price.
5) Where a partial execution of an order occurs the remaining volume will be registered in the order book preserving its original time stamp.

36. Reference Price of a Security
1) The equity reference price for an equity security shall be the Volume Weighted Average Price (VWAP) of transactions executed during the entire trading session of trading of the specific equity security.
2) Where there are no trades for an equity security in the current trading session, the equity reference price for that security shall be that of the previous trading session.
3) The volume weighted average price for an equity security will be calculated using all transactions executed during the entire trading session for that particular security.
4) The VWAP shall be calculated as follows:

VWAP = \frac{\text{Total value traded in the session}}{\text{Total volume traded in the session}}
5) Odd lot transactions shall be counted for the purposes of computing the index, the equity reference price and the market capitalization for equity securities.

37. Bidding Advance and Dealing spreads
1) The bidding advance and dealing spreads shall be as follows

38. Limits on bids and offers
1) The daily allowed price movement for any equity security in a single trading session shall be no more than 15% above or below the reference price.
2) Rule 38(1) above shall not be applicable with respect to an equity security where:
   a) The Issuer announces its financial results or material information;
   b) It is the first session for the trading of the security ex entitlement;
   c) The security has not traded for over three calendar months;
   d) Trading is in respect of rights;
   e) It involves a transaction to be carried out on the AON Board;

3) Where rule 38(2) is applicable, no market order shall be accepted by the ATS.

39. Price Determination of a Newly Listed Equity Security
1) There shall be no price spreads for a newly listed equity security during pre-open.
2) The daily allowable price movement limits shall not apply on the first day of trading in a newly listed equity security.
3) Only limit orders with disclosed quantities shall be permitted for this security.
4) In the event that an opening price for a newly listed equity security is not determined during the opening auction, the security shall proceed to continuous trading and the first trade shall be the opening price.

40. Trading Status of a Security
1) The following status shall be indicated against individual securities in accordance with the timetable provided by the Issuer:

   ‘s’ To signify that the security has been suspended from trading and no transactions shall be recorded on that particular security.

   ‘cd’ To signify that the security is trading cum dividend.

   ‘eb’ To signify that the security is trading cum bonus.

   ‘xd’ To signify that the security is trading ex-dividend. The status shall remain until the dividend is paid.

   ‘xb’ To signify that the security is trading ex-bonus. The status shall remain until the securities are issued and available for trading.

   ‘er’ To signify that the security is trading cum rights.

   ‘xr’ To signify that the security is trading ex rights. The status shall remain until the right is issued and is available for trading.

   ‘q’ To indicate that the auditors’ opinion on the annual financial statements of the company is qualified. The annotation shall be removed once the company produces an unqualified opinion of its auditor. The Exchange shall also indicate where any other circumstances relating to an auditors’ opinion exist in regard to the financial statements of the company.
PART VI- TRADING, MARKET AND SECURITY HALTS

41. Trading Halts
1) The Chief Executive may vary the duration of trading and/or suspend trading for one or more trading sessions or any part of a trading session.
2) A trading halt may be imposed by the Exchange for a time period during a trading session or may be extended beyond one trading session.
3) The Exchange shall inform the Trading Participants of trading halts via the announcement system of the ATS and shall notify the Authority in the event of a trading halt.

42. Market Halts
1) A market halt can occur during a trading session in the following circumstances:
   a) Due to a technical failure of the ATS.
   b) When the All Share Index decreases by more than 5% at the opening session compared to its closing value or during the continuous session compared to its opening value. The halt will not be for more than 15 minutes.
   c) Where in the opinion of the Chief Executive circumstances exist or are about to occur that could result in other than the transparent, fair and orderly trading of the listed securities.
   d) The Exchange shall make a public announcement of a market halt that extends beyond one trading session and notification shall be given to the Authority.

43. Security Halts
1) The Exchange may temporarily halt trading in one or more securities in the following circumstances:
   a) Upon the request of the Authority;
   b) Prior to obtaining a clarification from the company on a report regarding the company which has been brought to the attention of the Exchange.
   c) When there are unusual market movements in price/volume of a security.
   d) Where trading in a security is being or could be undertaken by persons possessing unpublished price sensitive information that relates to that security.
e) Where in the opinion of the Chief Executive circumstances exist or are about to occur that could result in other than the transparent, fair and orderly trading of the specific securities.

2) Trading Participants shall be prohibited from effecting transactions in the security/securities for which a halt of trading has been announced.

2) Where the Exchange has reasonable grounds to suspect collusion or market manipulation, the Exchange may delete the orders in the order book at the time of halt.

3) Where the orders are not deleted by the Exchange, Trading Participants may withdraw their own orders during the period of halt. No other changes to the order book shall be permitted during the halt.

4) The Exchange may upon the request of a Trading Participant, delete all the outstanding orders in the order book of the security/securities on which there has been a halt.

5) The Exchange shall immediately inform the Issuer of any halt in the trading of its securities other than for the purposes of making an announcement and in any event no later than 30 minutes after such halt is imposed.

6) Trading in the security/securities will resume as soon as the clarification from the Exchange or the issuer is disseminated to the market.

7) When the halt is lifted, trading in the security/securities will resume as per the current market status.

44. Cancellation and Amendment of transactions

1) Orders displayed in the order book can be amended prior to execution.

2) The order shall only be amended in respect of price, volume and time attributes. Core attributes such as client ID, security ID and order type (buy/sell) cannot be amended.

3) Where there is a price change or change in volume, the amended order shall be considered to be a new order with a new time stamp.

4) Executed trades can be amended or cancelled based on mutual agreement between the trading participants involved in the trade and with the prior approval of the Exchange.

5) The cancellation/amendment will be effected on the market day on which the trade took place.

6) A trade cannot be cancelled or amended if the buyer involved in the trade has subsequently sold the securities purchased earlier during the same trading session.
7) Following agreement between the trading participants involved in the trade, a written request for trade cancellation/amendment shall be forwarded to the Exchange by both parties involved in the trade.

8) Upon receipt and if deemed fit, the Exchange will approve the trade cancellation/amendment and make the necessary adjustment to the trade. The trading participants involved in the trade and the market will be informed of the trade cancellation/amendment.

9) A trade cancellation/amendment shall be initiated by the selling trading participant involved in the trade.

10) In case of a trade amendment only the volume of the trade is amended and can only be decreased.

45. Assistance by the Exchange
1) The Exchange may suspend or impose restrictions on a Trading Participant who fails to settle a transaction.

46. Exclusion of liability
1) When acting in good faith and without negligence, the Exchange shall not be liable to any person for:
   a) Any loss of opportunity, profit, goodwill, interest or use of money or securities;
   b) Any other special, indirect or consequential loss, damage, expense, liability or claim; which is suffered resulting from the failure of the ATS Service.

2) Where the Exchange or a Trading Participant is unable to operate the ATS Service due to a market halt, security halt or system failure, or due to an Act of God or force majeure or any act outside the control of the Exchange, the Exchange shall not be liable to pay any compensation or indemnity to any person who incurs a loss as a result of a delay in effecting any transaction.

47. Dispute Resolution
1) The Trading Manager shall be responsible for interpreting the Trading Rules and settling all disputes on the Trading Floor.

2) Any person aggrieved by any decision of the Trading Manager may appeal to the Chief Executive. If the aggrieved party is not satisfied with the decision of the Chief Executive he may appeal to the Business Conduct Committee.
3) Where a Trading Participant is not satisfied with the decision of the Committee, the Trading Participant will appeal to the Council.

4) A Trading Participant shall be informed of their right to appeal to the Authority from the decision of the Council.

48. Official Price List and Other Market Information

1) The Exchange’s Official Price List, Market Report and all reports generated by the ATS are the sole property of the Exchange. The copyrights of the Exchange therein are reserved. No person may make a commercial use of the proprietary information of the Exchange in any form or manner whatsoever, unless prior written consent has been given by the Exchange and on such terms and conditions for such use as the Exchange at its absolute discretion shall impose.

2) All copyright subsisting in the Exchange’s Share Index, and all other indices that the Exchange may from time to time create and their constituent lists vests in the Exchange.

3) Transmission of live feeds of market data and information generated through the ATS shall be the sole property of the Exchange and redistribution of such live feeds is not permitted without the express prior written consent of the Exchange.

4) The Exchange shall publish information on the prices, the traded volumes and the index.

5) The Exchange shall determine the particulars to be published for all listed securities, and the form in which and the precise time within which the information is to be provided, as well as the means by which it is to be made available, having regard to the nature, size and needs of the market concerned and of the investors operating on that market.

49. Disaster Recovery Transition

1) Upon the determination by the Exchange that an event has occurred that renders the ATS inaccessible, the Exchange shall provide access to the ATS through the Disaster Recovery Site.

2) The determination of such event shall be made by the Chief Executive in consultation with the Council Chairman and the Chairman of the Business Conduct Committee. In the absence of any or all of the persons mentioned above, the determination shall be made by any three Trading Participants of the Board.

3) The Exchange shall within two hours of such determination inform all Trading Participants of the location of the designated Trading Floor and the procedures to be followed by the Trading Participants for the resumption of trading at the designated Trading Floor.
50. Actions by the Exchange
1) Where a Trading Participant fails to settle their account in accordance with these Rules, the Exchange will invoke the guarantee and effect settlement on the next business day and such Trading Participant shall not be entitled to trade until the guarantee has been restored.
2) The Exchange shall impose penalties for failed settlement in accordance with the Fees, Charges and Penalties Rules 2012.
3) The Chief Executive shall have the power to take such action as may be required in order to maintain a transparent, fair and orderly market.

51. Announcements
1) An issuer shall as soon as possible but not later than twenty four hours release announcements in accordance with the Listing Rules of the Exchange.
2) Immediately upon receipt of material information and corporate action announcements in respect of entitlements and other market information, the Exchange shall send the information or announcement as the case may be, to Trading Participants through the ATS.
3) If an announcement is received by the Exchange from an issuer of a listed equity security during a Trading Session, the Exchange may impose a Security Halt on the relevant equity security for the rest of the Trading Session. Following a Security Halt all pending orders on that equity security shall be deleted.
5) The Security Halt shall be lifted during the next Trading Session and the daily allowable price movement limits shall not apply to that equity security for the entire Trading Session.

52. Transitional Provisions
1) The Exchange shall document the process to be followed during the transition from the manual to automated trading environment.
2) These Trading Rules shall come into effect after approval by the Authority.
