(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)
CHAPTER II
LICENSING OF BANKS AND FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

Part 1 - Licensing of Banks

Licensing of companies as banks

4. (1) Upon application by a company, the Registrar, in consultation with the Minister, may grant a license authorizing the company to conduct banking business.

(2) The application shall be in such form and accompanied by such fees as may be prescribed by regulation, and the form of application shall require at least the following particulars to be supplied:

(a) the articles of association of the company;
(b) the physical and postal addresses of its head office and the permanent residential addresses of its directors, chief executive officer, managers and shareholders;
(c) the name and permanent residential address of every subscriber for any class or series of shares issued by the company in a number that will exceed one per centum of all the shares of that class or series, whether such shares carry the right to vote in all circumstances or not;
(d) the addresses of each branch proposed to be opened by the company and, in the case of a mobile office, the area proposed to be served;
(e) full particulars of the business it proposes to conduct under the authority of the licence;
(f) the amount of its capital; and
(g) such assurances and evidence of the foregoing as the Registrar may require to be given by the applicant.

(3) An appeal shall lie under Chapter VIII against a decision of the Registrar to refuse to grant the application.

(4) At any time after receiving an application and before determining it, the Registrar may by written notice require the applicant to provide to the Registrar additional information or documents or direct the applicant to comply with such other requirements as the Bank of Zambia require.

(5) The directions and requirements given or imposed under subsections (2), (3) or (4) may differ between different applicants.

(6) Any information or statement to be provided to the Registrar under this section shall be in such form as the Registrar may specify, and the Registrar may by written notice require the applicant to cause a report to be provided by an accountant or other qualified person approved by the Bank of Zambia on such aspects of that information as may be specified by the Registrar.
(7) An applicant may withdraw an application by written notice to the Registrar at any time before it is granted or refused.

(8) A banking licence for a subsidiary of a foreign company may be granted if -

(a) the foreign company is a bank and is authorised to engage in banking business in the country where its head office is located; and

(b) the Bank of Zambia is satisfied that the foreign bank is adequately supervised by the competent authorities in the country where its head office is located.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Determination of application

5. The Registrar shall, within one hundred and eighty days of the receipt of an application for a banking licence, make a decision whether to grant the licence.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Application for licence to be refused in certain cases
6. (1) The Registrar shall not grant a licence if the applicant does not meet the requirements prescribed by the Bank of Zambia.

(2) An applicant for a licence aggrieved by the refusal of the Registrar to grant a licence may appeal against that decision in accordance with Chapter VIII.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Investigation of applicants

7. In deciding whether or not to grant a banking licence, and it deciding what conditions should be attached to such a licence, the Registrar shall have regard to -

(a) the capital adequacy of the applicant;

(b) the financial condition, resources and history of the applicant and the applicant’s associates and affiliates;

(c) the character and experience of the directors and major shareholders and of persons proposing to be concerned in the management of the business to be undertaken under the authority of the licence;

(d) the convenience and needs of the community intended to be served by that business; and

(e) the prospects for profitable operation of that business.

Authorised activities of banks in addition to taking of deposits

8. (1) Except where the conditions attached to a particular licence otherwise provide, a banking licence shall be taken to authorise its holder to engage in any of the following activities in addition to banking business:

(a) making loans and extending credit to any person on the security of property of any kind or unsecured;

(b) dealing as a principal or as an agent in -

(i) bills of exchange, promissory notes, cheques, travelers’ cheques and like instruments;

(ii) the currency of Zambia and, subject to the regulations, guidelines, bulletins and regulatory statements made under this Act, in the currency of any other country and foreign exchange transactions; and

(k) providing merchant banking services including the arrangement and underwriting of shares, trade financing, corporate financing and the provision of financial advice; and
(l) dealing as a principal or as an agent for its customers in financial futures and options and in exchange, currency and interest rate swap agreements.

(2) The Minister, on the recommendation of the Bank of Zambia, may by regulation prescribe the meaning to be given to any expression used in this section and not otherwise defined for the purposes of this Act.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Branches subsidiaries or other establishments of banks

9. (1) A bank shall not, whether of itself or by a subsidiary, open a branch, subsidiary or other establishment within or outside Zambia without the prior written approval of the Bank of Zambia.

(2) A bank or subsidiary proposing to open a branch, subsidiary or other establishment shall make an application in the form prescribed by the Bank of Zambia and accompanied by such fees as may be prescribed by the Minister on the recommendation of the Bank of Zambia.

(3) At least sixty days before closing a branch, a bank shall notify the Bank of Zambia in writing of its intention to do so.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Part 2 - Licensing of Financial Institutions

Grant of licence

10. (1) Upon application by any person, the Registrar, in consultation with the Minister, may grant a licence authorising the applicant to conduct any financial service business.

(2) The application shall be in such form and accompanied by such fees as may be prescribed by regulation.

(3) An appeal shall lie under Chapter VIII against a decision of the Registrar to refuse to grant the application.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Application of certain provisions of this Chapter to financial institutions

11. Subsections (2) to (7) of section four and sections five, six, seven, and nine shall apply with necessary modifications to the licensing of financial institutions.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Branches of financial institutions

12. (1) Unless the conditions of the licence limit or restrict the financial institution to one or more specific sites or locations, a financial institution may conduct at any place or places in Zambia any financial service that it is licensed to conduct.

(2) Within fourteen days after opening a new branch, a financial institution shall notify the Bank of Zambia in writing of the fact and of its location.

(3) At least sixty days before closing a branch, a financial institution shall notify the Bank of Zambia in writing of its intention to do so.

Part 2A - Licensing of, and Regulatory Requirements for Representative Offices

Licensing of representative office
12A. (1) A foreign bank or financial institution shall not establish a representative office in Zambia unless it holds a licence for the purpose.

(2) An application for a licence to establish a representative office shall be in such form and accompanied by such fees as may be prescribed by regulation and shall set out the following particulars -

(a) the name and address of the applicant;
(b) an authenticated copy of the laws of the country pursuant to which the applicant is established;

(d) the physical or proposed physical address of the representative office;
(e) the name of each officer it is intended to assign to the representative office;
(f) a description of the manner in which the bank or financial institution will supervise the operations of the representative office;
(g) the name and address of the office of the foreign bank or financial institution to which the representative office is to report directly; and
(h) such other information and documents as the Registrar may reasonably require.

(3) After receiving an application and before determining it the Registrar may by written notice require the applicant to provide additional information or documents.

(4) Subsections (3) to (8) of section four and sections five, six and seven shall apply with necessary modifications to a representative office.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where a foreign bank or financial institution has established a representative office in Zambia before the date of coming into force of this Act, it shall, within three months from that date, make an application in writing to the Registrar for a licence under this Part.

(6) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding five years or both.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

12B. The Bank of Zambia may prescribe regulatory requirements for representative offices in existence on the date this Act comes into force or established after that and in respect of the representative offices and employees of those offices.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)
Part 3 - Operation of Licences

Conditions of licences

13. (1) A licence is subject to such conditions as the Registrar thinks fit to specify in the licence when it is granted and, where those conditions are varied under this section, is subject to the conditions attached to the licence for the time being.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1) the conditions of a licence may:

(a) contain such restrictions as to the nature and scope of the business to be conducted by the licensee as the Registrar thinks fit to impose;

(b) provide for the payment, on such terms and calculated in such manner as the conditions may specify, of annual or other periodic licence fees; and

(c) in relation to a licence for a subsidiary of a foreign bank, a foreign financial institution or a representative office, require the foreign bank or financial institution to allow access by the Bank of Zambia to the offices and records of the bank or financial institution outside Zambia for the purpose of enabling the Bank to assess compliance with this Act by the subsidiary or the representative office.

(3) Upon application made by a licensee, the Registrar may, by order in writing, vary the conditions for the time being attached to a licence.

(4) In deciding whether to grant the variation, the Registrar is to have regard to such of the provisions of section seven as it considers relevant and to the public interest.

(5) An appeal shall lie under Chapter VIII against a decision of the Registrar to impose a particular condition on grant of a licence or to refuse a variation of the conditions pursuant to an application under this section.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Duration of licences

14. A licence remains in force until revoked by the Registrar under this Part.

Licences not transferable

15. There is no property in a licence, and a licence is not capable of being bought, sold, leased, mortgaged or in any manner transferred, demised or encumbered:

Provided that a licence may be transferred, in the event of an amalgamation of banks in accordance with this Act, on such terms and conditions as the Bank of Zambia may approve.
Revocation of licences

16. (1) The Registrar may revoke a licence if it appears to the Registrar that -
   (a) the application for the licence was fraudulent or contained a materially false statement; with a
   (b) the licensee has failed to comply with any condition or qualification of its licence or with any order of the Bank of Zambia under this Act;

   (d) the licensee fails to commence to conduct the business authorised by the licence within a period of twelve months following the grant of the licence or ceases or announces its intention to cease to conduct that business.

   (2) An appeal shall lie under Chapter VIII against a decision of the Registrar to revoke a licence.

   (3) When a licence is revoked, the licensee shall surrender to the Registrar each copy of the licence is on display in every place of business of the licensee and every other copy of the licence that is in the possession of the licensee, and the Registrar shall, as soon as practicable, publish notice of the revocation in the Government Gazette and in a newspaper of general circulation in Zambia, and may take any additional steps which, in his opinion, are necessary to inform the public of the revocation.

   (As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Part 4 - Prohibition of Unlicensed Business Etc

Prohibition of unlicensed business

17. (1) A person shall not conduct or offer to conduct banking business unless the person holds a licence for that purpose.

   (2) A person other than a licensed bank or a licensed financial institution shall not conduct or offer to conduct financial service business.

   (3) A bank or financial institution shall not conduct any banking or financial service business -
       (a) that it is not authorised, by this Act or the terms and conditions of its licence, to conduct; or
       (b) in contravention of the conditions of its licence.

   (4) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.

   (As amended by Acts No. 13 of 1994 and No. 18 of 2000)

Repayment of funds
18.  (1) A person holding funds obtained by conducting any banking business or financial service business in contravention of this Part shall repay such funds in accordance with the Bank of Zambia’s directions.

(2) A person who fails to repay funds as required under this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.

(3) To the extent that any funds repayable under this section remain unpaid at the end of the time limited by the directions of the Bank of Zambia for their repayment, they are a debt due to the Bank of Zambia upon trust for any persons appearing to the Bank of Zambia to be lawfully entitled to them and are recoverable at the suit of the Bank of Zambia in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(4) Nothing in this section relieves any person from liability to criminal proceedings under the other provisions of this Act arising out of the person’s contravention of any provision of this Act.

(As amended by Act s No. 13 of 1994 and No. 18 of 2000)

Part 5 - Register of Licenses

19. The Registrar shall create and maintain a register, to be known as the Register of Banks and Financial Institutions, in which shall be entered the particulars of all licensees and of the licences they hold.

20. (1) The Minister, on the recommendation of the Bank of Zambia, shall appoint a Registrar of Banks and Financial Institutions to administer the Register and to exercise and perform such other functions as are conferred or imposed upon him by or under this or any other Act or by the Governor of the Bank of Zambia, and may designate an employee of the Bank of Zambia as the Deputy Registrar of Banks and Financial Institutions who shall be subject to the control and directions of the Registrar and be competent to exercise and perform any of the powers and functions of the Registrar.

(2) The Registrar and Deputy Registrar shall each hold office for a term of five years unless for negligence of duty or misconduct, and shall be eligible for reappointment.

(3) The Registrar shall enter into the Register the name, the head office address and such other particulars as the Registrar considers appropriate concerning each person granted a licence, and shall remove from the Register the name and particulars of every person whose licence is revoked.

(4) Except as otherwise provided by this Act, the Registrar and Deputy Registrar, in the exercise and performance of their powers and functions, are subject to the control and direction of the Bank of Zambia.

Register in evidence
21. (1) For the purpose of ascertaining the facts concerning the licensing, or unlicensed status, of any person, entries made in the Register shall be prima facie evidence as to those facts.

(2) A document certified by the Registrar as a true copy or extract from the Register shall be admissible in any court as prima facie evidence of the contents of the Register.

Inspection of Register
22. The Register or a copy of the Register shall be available for inspection by the public at the head office of the Bank of Zambia during regular business hours upon payment of such fee as may be prescribed by regulation.

CHAPTER III
ORGANISATION AND ADMINISTRATION
Part 1 - Ownership and Control of Banks

Limitation on voting control
23. (1) Shares issued by a bank shall be only of such classes or series as may be approved by the Bank of Zambia.

(2) A person shall not, without prior approval in writing of the Bank of Zambia -
   (a) acquire any beneficial interest in the voting shares of a bank; or
   (b) enter into any voting trust or other agreement;
that would enable that person or another person to control more than twenty-five per centum of the total votes that could be cast on any general resolution at a general or special meeting of the bank:
Provided that this subsection shall not apply to a company which is publicly listed on a securities exchange in a jurisdiction outside the Republic acceptable to the Bank of Zambia.

(3) A bank shall not register any transfer of its voting shares to any person if, as a result of the transfer, the person would contravene subsection (2).

(4) Where a person (in this subsection referred to as “the share-holder”) acquires an interest in or control over voting shares in contravention of subsection (2), that person shall not, in person or by proxy, exercise the voting rights or any voting share owned or controlled by the shareholder other than such shares as are registered in the name of that person on the share register of the bank.

(5) Where, on the date this section comes into force, a person owns or controls or is deemed, by the operation of any provision of this Act, to own or control shares in contravention of subsection (2), the person may retain any such shares or control, but may not sell or otherwise dispose of the same except in such a manner that no transferee from or successor to the person will thereby contravene that subsection.

(6) Any person acting in contravention of this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding five years, or to both.

(As amended by Act No. 13 of 1994 and No. 18 of 2000)

Regulation and divestment of other control

23A. (1) A person who, by virtue of subsection (5) of section twenty-three has, immediately before the date of coming into force of this Act, the type of control of a bank or financial institution that would otherwise be prohibited under subsection (2) of that section shall dispose of the beneficial interest in the voting shares or terminate or modify the voting trust or other arrangement so as to reduce the person’s control to the extent permissible under subsection (2) of that section.

(2) A person who is required by subsection (1) to dispose of any beneficial interest in voting shares or to terminate or modify a voting trust or other arrangement shall do so within a period not exceeding two years from the date of coming into force of this Act.

(3) The Bank of Zambia may, in any particular case, order a person to whom subsection (1) applies to submit to the Bank of Zambia a plan of action regarding the reduction of control and may give directions for the implementation of the plan.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Ownership

24. (1) A person who has de jure control or de facto control of a bank shall not own any share in the capital of, or acquire or maintain de jure or de facto control of, any other bank.

(2) This section does not preclude any person from acquiring all the voting shares in the capital of a bank for the purpose of implementing an amalgamation of two or more banks in accordance with this Act so long as at the completion of the corporate restructuring that person is in compliance with subsection (1).

(3) Any person acting in contravention of this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding five years, or to both.

Prohibition of ownership of shares by trusts

24A. (1) A trust shall not own shares directly or indirectly in a bank or financial institution.

(2) The Minister may, by statutory instrument, make regulations for the purpose of enabling trusts in existence on the date this Act comes into force to comply with subsection (1).

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Part 2 - Amalgamation And Restructuring of Banks

Meaning of “corporate restructuring transaction”

25. In this part, “corporate restructuring transaction” means -

(a) the amalgamation of a bank with another company; or

(b) the transfer by a bank to any other company of the whole or more than the prescribed part of its assets or liabilities in Zambia otherwise than in the ordinary course of its business.

Prohibition of corporate restructuring transactions

26. (1) A bank shall not effect a corporate restructuring transaction with another company that is not a bank.

(2) A bank shall not effect a corporate restructuring transaction with another bank without the prior written consent of the Bank of Zambia

(3) A transaction effected in contravention of this section shall be void.

(As amended by Act No. 13 of 1994 and No. 18 of 2000)

Consent to corporate restructure etc.

27. (1) An application for any consent of the Bank of Zambia to a corporate restructuring transaction shall include-

(a) a statement of the nature of the transaction proposed to be entered into;

(b) the text of all material documents intended to evidence or implement the transaction; and

(c) such other information, in such form, as the Bank of Zambia may reasonably require for the purposes of an informed consent or as may be prescribed by regulation.
Each bank involved in the proposed corporate restructuring transaction shall be named in the application and is an applicant for the purposes of this Part.

Investigation of applicants for consent

28. (1) In considering an application for consent to a corporate restructuring transaction, the Bank of Zambia shall have regard to -
   (a) the adequacy of the capital of each applicant in relation to the transaction;
   (b) the general financial condition, resources and history of each such applicant;
   (c) the character and experience of the directors and persons concerned in the management of each such applicant;
   (d) the prospects of each such applicant for profitable operation if the transaction is permitted; and
   (e) the probable effects of the transaction upon competition in the banking business or the financial services business likely to be affected by the transaction.

(2) If the Bank of Zambia decides to grant its consent, it shall specify a date on which the corporate restructuring transaction will take effect.

(3) An appeal shall lie under Chapter VIII against a decision of the Bank of Zambia to refuse to grant the application.

Effect of amalgamation or transfer

29. (1) In this section-
   (a) a bank formed by an amalgamation, or to which assets and liabilities are transferred, in accordance with a corporate restructuring transaction to which consent has been given by the Bank of Zambia is referred to as “the new bank”; and
   (b) an amalgamating bank or a bank transferring assets in accordance with such a transaction is referred to as “the old bank”.

(2) When the corporate restructuring transaction takes effect -
   (a) all assets and liabilities of the old bank or, in the case of a transfer of assets and liabilities, those assets and liabilities agreed to be transferred, shall vest in and become binding upon the new bank or transferee;
   (b) the new bank shall have the same rights, and shall be subject to the same obligations as were, immediately before the transaction took effect, binding upon the old bank or, in the case of a transfer of assets and liabilities, the same rights and obligations as were applicable to the old bank with respect to the assets and liabilities transferred;
   (c) all agreements, appointments, transactions and documents relating to the subject-matter of the transaction and made, entered into, drawn or executed by, with or in favour of the old bank, and in force immediately before the transaction took effect, shall remain of full force and effect and shall be deemed to have been made, entered into, drawn or executed by, with or in favour of the new bank; and

(d) any mortgage, bond, pledge, guarantee or other instrument relating to the subject-matter of the transaction and made or given to secure past, present and future advances facilities or services by the old bank, which was in force immediately before the transaction took effect, shall remain of full force and effect and shall be deemed to be a mortgage, bond, pledge, guarantee or instrument given to or in favour of the new bank or transferee, as security for past, present and future advances, facilities or services by that bank.

(3) The Registrar of Companies, the Registrar of Lands and Deeds and every officer in charge of an office in which is registered any title to property belonging to, or any mortgage, bond or other right in favour of, the old bank shall -

(a) upon being satisfied that the Bank of Zambia has under this Part consented to the corporate restructuring transaction and that the transaction has been duly effected; and

(b) upon the production to him of any relevant deed, instrument, mortgage, charge, bond, certificate, letter of appointment, licence or other document; make such endorsements in the register concerned and such alterations thereto as may be necessary to record the transfer thereof and of any rights or liabilities thereunder from the old bank to the new bank.

(4) No transfer fees, stamp duty, registration fees, licence fees or other charges, shall be payable in respect of the transfer or any endorsement or alteration made under subsection (3).

(5) The provisions of this section shall not affect the rights of any creditor of the old bank or of the new bank, except to the extent provided by this section.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

---

Part 3 - Boards of Directors

Boards of directors

30. Every bank and every financial institution shall have a board of directors in which shall vest all the powers of management and control and which shall be responsible for the formulation of policies of the bank or financial institution.

(2) A board shall consist of not less than five members each of whom holds the minimum qualifications set out in Part 4 of this Chapter.
Chief executive officers and chief financial officers

30A. Every bank shall have a chief executive officer and a chief financial officer, each of whom possesses the requisite qualifications, expertise and integrity to hold the relevant office and is not disqualified under section thirty-one, but a person may not hold more than one such office.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Qualifications of directors and senior officers

31. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Companies Act or any other written law, a person shall not be qualified to be elected a director or to be appointed a chief executive officer, chief financial officer or manager of a bank if that person -

(a) is not a fit and proper person to hold the relevant office in relation to integrity and professional expertise;
(b) is not above the age of twenty-one years;
(c) is an undischarged bankrupt;
(d) has been convicted of a felony or any offence involving dishonesty;
(e) has been declared or otherwise adjudged in any official proceedings to be mentally incompetent to manage one’s own affairs;
(f) is under suspension or has been removed from office under this Act; or
(g) has been a director, chief executive officer, chief financial officer or manager of a company which has been adjudged insolvent, entered into a composition with creditors, gone into liquidation, declared bankrupt or has entered into any other arrangement with creditors or taken any other action with similar effect in Zambia or elsewhere unless that person shows that he was not responsible for the insolvency, liquidation, composition with creditors, bankruptcy, other arrangement with creditors or other reaction with similar effect in Zambia or elsewhere.

(2) Any person who is a director or a chief executive officer, chief financial officer or manager concerned in the management of a bank or financial institution shall forthwith cease to hold office upon -

(a) becoming bankrupt, suspending payments or compounding or proposing a compromise with that person’s creditors generally;
(b) being charged with a felony or any offence involving dishonesty;
(c) being declared or otherwise adjudged in any official proceedings to be mentally incompetent to manage affairs; or
(d) being suspended or removed from office by order of the Bank of Zambia under this Act.
(3) A person who has been a director or chief executive officer, chief financial officer or manager concerned in the management of a licensee whose licence has been revoked shall not, without the approval of the Bank of Zambia, act or continue to act as a director or be directly concerned in the management of any bank or financial institution.

(4) A person shall not be a director of more than one bank or financial institution.

(5) Any person acting in contravention of subsection (1) or (2) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a penalty not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Directors from outside to be in the majority

32. (1) A majority of the members of the board of directors of a bank shall be persons who are not officers or employees of the bank.

2) The Minister, on the recommendation of the Bank of Zambia, may by regulation provide for the application of subsection (1) to any other class or type of incorporated financial institution.

Conduct of directors, chief executive officers, chief financial officers and managers

33. Every director, chief executive officer, chief financial officer or manager concerned in the management of a bank, in exercising the powers and discharging the duties of that person’s office shall -

(a) act honestly and in good faith and in the best interest of the bank; and

(b) exercise due care, diligence and skill.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Indemnity of directors and others

34. (Repealed by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Disclosure of interest
35. (1) A director shall declare in writing to the board annually, the names and addressees of the director's associates and full particulars of every material interest.

(2) A director, chief executive officer, chief financial officer or manager of a bank who -
   (a) is a party to, or has a material interest in, a contract or a proposed contract with the bank; or
   (b) has an interest in, or a material relationship to, a party or prospective party to a contract or a proposed contract with the bank; shall disclose in writing to the bank the nature and extent of the interest or relationship.

(3) The disclosure required by subsection (2) shall be made forthwith after the contract or proposed contract comes to the knowledge of the person who has to make it.

(4) At any meeting of the board, a director who has a material interest or a material relationship within the scope of this section shall leave the meeting at which the contract concerned is discussed, and shall refrain from voting on any matter related thereto which becomes the subject of action by the board of the bank, but such departure from the meeting shall not disqualify the interested person for the purposes of constituting a quorum.

(5) Where a director, chief executive officer, chief financial officer or manager fails to disclose a material interest in accordance with this section -
   (a) the court shall, on the application of the bank concerned or of any of its shareholders or of the Bank of Zambia, set aside the contract on such terms as it may determine; and
   (b) the Bank of Zambia may suspend the director, chief executive officer, chief financial officer or manager from office in writing addressed to the person so suspended.

(6) For the purposes of this section -
   (a) an interest is material if it is material with reference to the wealth, business or family interests of the person having the interest and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a person has a material interest in -
      (i) any company of which he owns, directly or indirectly, more than ten per centum of any class of the voting shares, or of which he is a director; and
      (ii) any partnership in which the person is a partner; and
   (b) persons have a material relationship with each other if, by virtue of paragraph (b) of subsection (3) of section two, they are associates.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)
36. False statements and obstruction of inspection

A director, chief executive officer, chief financial officer, manager, employee, agent, accountant, legal adviser or any other adviser of a bank who -

(a) negligently or with intent to deceive, makes any false or misleading statement or entry or omits any statement or entry that should be made in any book, account, report or statement of the bank; or

(b) obstructs or endeavours to obstruct -

(i) the proper performance by an auditor’s duties in accordance with the provisions of this Act; or

(ii) a lawful inspection of the bank by a duly authorised inspector appointed by the Bank of Zambia;

commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or to both.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

37. Suspension or dismissal of directors and managers

(1) The Bank of Zambia may, by order in writing served on him, suspend from office for any period not exceeding six months, any director or chief executive officer, chief financial officer or manager, concerned in the management of a bank or financial institution who fails to take all reasonable steps to secure compliance by the bank or institution with the requirements of this Act.

(As amended by Act No. 13 of 1994 and No. 18 of 2000)

(2) At any time before the expiry of the period of six months referred to in subsection (1), the Bank of Zambia may apply to the Court for an order extending the suspension and the Court may, by order, suspend from office the director, the chief executive officer, chief financial officer or manager concerned for such period as it thinks fit or, if the Court is satisfied that such an order is justified remove the director, chief financial officer or manager from office permanently.

(3) A director or chief financial officer or duty pertaining to his office during any period of suspension imposed, or after removal from office, under this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.

(As amended by Act No. 13 of 1994)

(4) The Bank of Zambia may recommend to a bank or financial institution the removal from office of a director, a chief executive officer, a chief financial officer or a manager referred to in subsection (1) without first suspending the director, officer or manager.
Part 4A - Organisation and Administration of Financial Institutions

Structure of unincorporated financial institutions

37A. Every financial institution which is not incorporated shall have and maintain a structure which has the following characteristics:
   (a) voting rights; and
   (b) subordination to all other depositors and creditors in the event of insolvency, dissolution or winding up.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Application of Parts 1, 2 and 4 to financial institutions

37B. The provisions of Parts 1, 2 and 4 of this Chapter shall apply, with such modifications as the Minister, on the recommendation of the Bank of Zambia may determine, to the categories of financial institutions set out in the First Schedule.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Part 5 - Constitution of Banks and Incorporated Financial Institutions

Variation of corporate constitutions Cap 388

38. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Companies Act, the Registrar of Companies shall not approve nor accept any document, the effect of which is to add, vary or delete any provision of or change in any way the legal effect of the memorandum or articles of association of a bank or incorporated financial institution unless the same is submitted together with written evidence of the knowledge and approval of the Registrar.

Amendment of constitution by Bank of Zambia

39. Where the Bank of Zambia notifies a bank or incorporated financial institution in writing that the Bank of Zambia considers that any specified provision in its memorandum, articles of association or other corporate documents is inappropriate for a company carrying on a business for which it is licensed or has applied to be licensed, the bank or institution shall, before the conclusion of its next annual or special meeting of shareholders, amend its corporate documents so as to remove the offending provision or amend it according to the directions of the Bank of Zambia.

CHAPTER IV
OPERATIONS

Part 1 - Anti-Competitive Conduct

Interest rates and charges

40. (1) A bank or financial institution shall not make any agreement or arrangement with another bank or financial institution with respect to -
(a) the rate of interest on a deposit by any person;
(b) the rate of interest or charge on a loan to any person;
(c) the amount of any charge to any person for the provision of a financial service;
(d) the provision of, or refusal to provide any financial service to any person; or
(e) the provision of financial services in a manner that restricts competition.

(2) Any bank or financial institution acting in contravention of this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units.

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply to any agreement or arrangement -
(a) for the performance of a financial service by one bank or financial institution to another;
(b) evidencing a syndication or other agreement for the provision of credit and other banking services to a person by two or more banks or financial institutions;
(c) for the underwriting or distribution of any security by a bank or a group of persons including a bank or financial institution; or
(d) for the exchange of statistics or audit information, the development and use of systems, forms, methods, procedures and standards, the use of common facilities, joint research and development or any matter in connection therewith.

(As amended by Act No. 13 of 1994 and No. 18 of 2000)

Collateral contracts
41. Any bank or financial institution that requires any person to contract to receive any financial service as a condition of being permitted to contract with it or any other person to receive any other financial service, or any goods or other services shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.

(As amended by Act No. 13 of 1994)

Other laws not affected
42. The provisions of this Part are in addition to, and do not limit the operation of, any other law in force for the promotion of competition and free trade.

Part 2 - Business Practices and Dealings with the Public

Principal administrative office
43. (1) Every bank and financial institution licensed under this Act shall -
(a) maintain a principal administrative office in Zambia;
(b) inform the Bank of Zambia in writing -
   (i) of the location of its principal administrative office; and
of any proposed change in the location of its principal administrative office at least sixty days prior to the proposed change, and the change shall only be effected after written confirmation by the Bank of Zambia, of the suitability of the proposed location.

(2) In subsection (1), “principal administrative office” means the office in which the over-all administration of the affairs of a bank or financial institution, other than its banking business or financial service business is carried on.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Display of names

44. (1) Every bank and financial institution shall, in easily legible letters in the English language, display its name and a statement of its licensed status as a bank or financial institution, as the case may be -

(a) prominently at the entrance to every place where it carries on any part of its business;
(b) on every letter, advertisement or other communication published or issued by or on its behalf;
(c) in every written contract that it enters into or offers to enter into and in every receipt that it issues.

Use of licensed name

45. (1) A bank or financial institution shall not, without the prior written consent of the Bank of Zambia, alter the name under which it is licensed, or in the course of or for any purpose connected with its business, use or refer to itself by -

(a) a name other than the name under which it is licensed; or
(b) an abbreviation of that name.

(2) Nothing in this section shall prevent a bank or financial institution, with the consent of the Bank of Zambia, from using or referring to itself in conjunction with its licensed name by the name of a business or undertaking with which it has been amalgamated or, in the case of a change of name authorised under this section, by the name by which it was previously known.

Holidays

46. (1) The Minister, on the recommendation of the Bank of Zambia, may by regulation prescribe one or more days to be a bank holiday on which no bank or financial institution may be open for business with the public, whether or not such a day is also a public holiday:

Provided that branches at airports and border posts shall remain open throughout.
(2) A bank or financial institution shall remain open for business with the public during hours agreed to by the Bank of Zambia.

(3) A private obligation that -
   (a) can be discharged only with a designated bank or financial institution; and
   (b) falls due on a day on which the premises of that bank or financial institution are not open for business; shall be deemed to fall due on the first following business day.

Disclosure of interest rate and charges
47. (1) When a bank or financial institution opens a new account for a person, it shall, at the same time, provide the person in writing with -
   (a) a statement of all charges for maintaining the account and accessing the funds on account;
   (b) a statement of the interest to be paid by the bank or institution; and
   (c) a statement of how the bank or institution will advise the person of any new charges or changes in the charges or interest disclosed.

(2) A bank or financial institution that agrees to make a loan or credit available to a person shall, at the same time, disclose the cost of borrowing to the person in writing.

(3) The Bank of Zambia may prescribe the form, content, method of calculation and of disclosure, and the means and frequency of publishing, any information or change of information required by this section to be disclosed.

   (As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Customer complaints
48. A bank or financial institution shall -
   (a) establish, and make available in writing to its customers in the public portion of each branch, procedures for dealing with complaints made by customers concerning their relations with the bank or financial institution;

   (b) designate a manager or employee to be the customer service officer and to be responsible for implementing and administering those procedures, including receiving, dealing with or otherwise disposing of all complaints received; and

   (c) create and maintain for two years, or such longer period as may be prescribed by the Bank of Zambia a record of every complaint received and how it was dealt with or disposed of.

   (As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)
49. Advertisement by licensee

(1) A bank or financial institution that publishes or permits the publication of any advertisement concerning any financial services offered by it or by any other bank or financial institution, or quoting a fee, rate or charge for any such service, that is false or misleading in a material particular shall be guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand penalty units.

(2) For the purposes of this section, an “advertisement” includes a paid radio or television announcement, a poster, billboard or handbill, and a paid advertisement in a regularly published newspaper or magazine.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Confidentiality

50. (1) A bank or financial institution and every director, chief executive officer, chief financial officer, manager and employee thereof shall maintain the confidentiality of all confidential information obtained in the course of service to the bank or institution and shall not divulge the same except -

(a) in accordance with the express consent of the customer, or the order of a court;
(b) where the interest of the licensee itself requires disclosure; or
(c) where the Bank of Zambia, in carrying out its functions under this Act, so requests.

(2) For the purposes of this section, confidential information about a person includes information that is not public, concerning -

(a) the nature, amount or purpose of any payment made by or to the person;
(b) the recipient of a payment by the person;
(c) the assets, liabilities, financial resources or financial condition of the person;
(d) the business or family relations of the person; or
(e) any matter of a personal nature that the person disclosed to the bank in confidence.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of any law to the contrary, in any case where evidence of commission of an offence is to be found in the books, accounts or records or a bank or financial institution, such evidence shall not be sought or obtained from the bank or institution otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of any other written law.

Part 3 - Records
Records of constitution and of compliance with this Act
51. (1) Every bank or incorporated financial institution shall prepare and maintain at its head office records containing -

(a) its articles and memorandum of association and all amendments thereto;
(b) a register of its shareholders, including the number of shares registered in the name of each shareholder;
(c) minutes of meetings and resolutions of the directors;
(d) minutes of meetings and resolutions of the shareholders;
(e) accounting records exhibiting clearly and correctly the state of its business affairs, explaining its transactions and financial position in such a way as to enable the Bank of Zambia conveniently to determine whether the bank has complied with all the provisions of this Act;
(f) records showing, for each customer of the bank or institution on a daily basis, particulars of its transactions with or for the account of the customer and the balance owing to or by the customer; and
(g) such other records as are required to be prepared and maintained by or under this Act.

(2) At all reasonable times, the records described in this section -
(a) shall be open to inspection by the directors; and
(b) shall (except for records described in paragraphs (c), (f) and (g) of subsection (1)) be open to inspection by the shareholders and creditors of the bank and their personal representatives.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Credit documentation

52. (1) Every bank or financial institution shall cause to be created and shall maintain in its principal office in Zambia proper credit documentation and any other information concerning its business relations with its customers and other persons that the Bank of Zambia may prescribe.

(2) For the purposes of this section, "credit documentation" means, with respect to a contract entered into by a bank or financial institution with any other person for the provision of a financial service, or in respect of a financial service performed or to be performed by the bank or institution -

(a) reasonably current financial statements of the indebtedness of the borrower and any guarantor of the borrower to the bank or institution;
(b) a description of any collateral over which the bank or institution has any mortgage or charge as security for the due payment of the indebtedness to it;
(c) a statement of the terms of the credit, including the principal amount, rate of interest, schedule of repayments and the borrower’s objective or purpose for borrowing; and
(d) the signature of each person who authorised the credit on behalf of the bank or institution.

(ii) risk management, processes and practices during the year;
(iii) directors’ interests disclosed;
(iv) the existence of prohibited borrowings or lendings; and
(v) internal control; and

(c) any information that may be required by or under the law under which the bank or financial institution is established.

(2) The information and particulars referred to in subsection (1) shall contain what is necessary to present fairly, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied, the financial position of the bank or financial institution as at the end of the financial year to which it relates and the results of the operations and changes in the financial position of the bank or financial institution for that financial year.

(3) The directors shall also place before the shareholders at every annual meeting -

(a) the report of the auditor of the bank or financial institution; and

(b) any additional information concerning the financial position of the bank or financial institution and the results of its operations as may be prescribed by the Bank of Zambia.

(4) In subsection (1), a related party transaction means a transaction whereby two or more persons, by virtue of their relationship, will or are likely to benefit severally or jointly from funds or services arising from a transaction involving any one of them and a bank or financial institution.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Statement as to subsidiaries

57. A bank or financial institution shall include with its annual statement -
(a) a list of subsidiaries, other than subsidiaries acquired upon a realization of security, showing with respect to each subsidiary -

(i) its name and the address of its head or principal office;

(ii) the book value in the aggregate of any shares of the subsidiary beneficially owned by the bank or financial institution and any other subsidiaries of the bank or financial institution; and

(iii) the percentage of the voting shares of the subsidiary that is beneficially owned by the bank or financial institution and by other subsidiaries of the bank or financial institution; and

(b) such other information as the Bank of Zambia may prescribe.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Reserves for bad and doubtful debts

58. Annual financial statements of banks and financial institutions shall comply with any regulations, guidelines and prescriptions relating to the creation or variation of appropriate reserves for bad and doubtful debts.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Approval of annual financial statements

59. Annual financial statements of a bank or financial institution shall be approved by the directors and the approval shall be signified by their signatures.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Monthly statements

60. (1) Every bank or financial institution shall deliver to the Bank of Zambia such number of copies of the following in such form and within such time after the end of each calendar month as may be prescribed by the Bank of Zambia -

(a) a statement showing, as at the close of the last business day of that month -

(i) its liabilities to the public; and

(ii) the amount of each of the liquid assets specified in the Second Schedule to this Act which it holds, its aggregate holding of such assets and the proportion that the aggregate holding of such assets bears to its liabilities to the public;

(b) a statement showing its assets and liabilities as at the close of the last business day of that month;

(c) the amount of its regulatory capital (as defined by regulation) and reserve funds and the ratio that the amount of its liabilities to the public bears to the amount of its regulatory capital (as so defined) and reserve funds;
(d) a statement showing those of its loans that are non-performing or that have been restructured or the terms of repayment of which have been extended; and

(e) such other statements concerning its operation, financial condition and resources as may be prescribed by the Bank of Zambia.

(2) The Bank of Zambia may require any bank or financial institution to supplement with further details or evidence any information provided by the bank or financial institution in accordance with subsection (1).

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Publication of financial statement

61. (1) A bank or financial institution shall not later than twenty-one days before the date of each annual meeting, send to each shareholder and to the Bank of Zambia, a copy of its annual statement.

(2) Where a bank or financial institution fails to send a copy of the annual statement to the Bank of Zambia and each shareholder in accordance with subsection (1), the annual meeting of the bank of financial institution shall be adjourned until such time as that requirement has been complied with.

(3) A bank or financial institution shall publish in a newspaper of general circulation in Zambia a copy of -

   (a) each of its annual financial statements; and

   (b) its monthly financial statements for each quarter

(4) Every bank or financial institution shall display in a conspicuous place in each branch, at all times when it is open for business -

   (a) a copy of the monthly statement last published in accordance with this Part; and

   (b) a copy of the annual statement last published in accordance with this Part.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Part 2 - Audit of Accounts of Banks and Financial Institutions

Appointment of auditor

62. (1) Every bank or financial institution shall appoint annually, at the beginning of each financial year, an auditor approved by the Bank of Zambia who shall be a member in good standing of a professional association of accountants recognised by the Bank of Zambia.

(2) The auditor’s duties shall be to audit the accounts and to make a report to the shareholders of each such bank or financial institution upon the annual balance sheet, profit and loss account and other matters as required by this Act.

(3) An auditor may be re-appointed from time to time.

(4) If a bank or financial institution fails to appoint an auditor satisfactory to the Bank of Zambia, the Bank of Zambia shall have power to appoint such an auditor.

(5) The remuneration of the auditor, whether appointed by the bank or financial institution or by the Bank of Zambia, shall be paid by the bank or financial institution and in the case of an auditor appointed by the Bank of Zambia, shall be fixed by the Bank of Zambia.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Disqualification of auditor
63. A person shall not be qualified for appointment, or be qualified to act, as an auditor of a bank or financial institution if the person is -

(a) a director, chief executive officer, chief financial officer, manager or employee of a bank of financial institution or of any person associated or affiliated with it;

(b) the spouse, parent, child or partner of a director, chief executive officer, chief financial officer, manager or employee of that bank or financial institution;

(c) a body corporate;

(d) a manager or employee of a company that is controlled by the bank or financial institution; or

(e) a person who personally, or through that person’s partner or employee, regularly performs the duties of secretary or bookkeeper to the bank or financial institution.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Auditor’s report

64. (1) Every auditor of a bank or financial institution shall have the right of access at all times to all books, accounts and records of the bank or financial institution, and shall be entitled to require from its directors, chief executive officer, chief financial officer, managers and agents such information and explanations as the auditor requires to perform the auditor’s duties under this Act.

(2) In every report made for the purposes of this Act by an auditor, the auditor shall -

(a) express whether, in the auditor’s opinion, the bank or financial institution made available all necessary information to enable the auditor to comply with the requirements of this Act;

(b) state whether, in the auditor’s opinion, each of the statements included in the annual statement are fully, fairly and properly drawn up, whether they exhibit a true and fair statement of the bank’s or financial institution’s financial condition and, if the auditor has called for explanation or information from the directors, chief executive officer, chief financial officer, managers or agents of the bank or financial institution, whether a satisfactory response was received;

(c) state whether in the auditor’s opinion the bank or financial institution has complied with the provisions of this Act and the regulations, guidelines and prescriptions under this Act and any other written law; and

(d) report any transactions or conditions that have come to the attention of the auditor affecting the well-being of the bank or financial institution that in the opinion of the auditor, are not satisfactory and require rectification and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing shall, report on -

(i) any transaction of the bank or financial institution that has come to the attention of the auditor and which, in the opinion of the auditor, has not been within the powers of the bank or financial institution or which was contrary to this Act or any other law; and

(ii) any loan owing to the bank or financial institution by any person that is a non-performing loan, or that has been restructured or the terms of repayment of which have been extended, if the principal amount of the loan is five per centum or more of the regulatory capital of the bank or financial institution.

(3) The directors shall submit a copy of the report of the auditor, together with a copy of the annual financial statement to the Bank of Zambia and each shareholder of the bank or financial institution within a period of three months from the end of each financial year.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Resignation or termination of appointment of auditor
65.  (1) If an auditor resigns from the audit of a bank or financial institution, the auditor shall prepare and deliver to the Bank of Zambia within ten days after delivery to the bank or financial institution of the auditor’s resignation a written statement of the reasons therefor.

(2) If a bank or financial institution terminates the appointment of its auditor, the bank or financial institution shall prepare and deliver to the Bank of Zambia and send a copy directly to the auditor, within ten days of the decision to terminate the appointment, a written statement setting out the reasons for the termination.

(3) The auditor shall, within ten days of receiving the statement referred to in subsection (2), deliver to the Bank of Zambia and to the bank or financial institution a written statement on the reasons set out by the bank of financial institution and the statement of the auditor may include refutations of those reasons.

Immunity of auditor

66. No person shall have any claim against an auditor for or with respect to any oral or written statement or report made by the auditor in good faith in the performance of the auditor’s functions under this Act.

Audit committee

67. (1) The directors of each bank or financial institution shall establish an audit committee of at least three directors, a majority of whom are persons who do not hold any of the offices of chief executive officer, chief financial officer, manager or employee of the bank, financial institution or any company that is associated with or affiliated to it.

(2) The audit committee shall -

(a) review the annual financial statement of the bank or financial institution before it is approved by the directors;
(b) review or cause to be reviewed such other informational returns as the bank or financial institution shall have made in accordance with the requirements of this Act and the regulations under this Act;
(c) ensure that appropriate internal controls and procedures are in place;
(d) review such investments and transactions that could materially adversely affect the financial condition of the bank as the auditor, chief executive officer, chief financial officer or any manager, may bring to the attention of the committee;
(e) meet with the auditor to discuss the annual statement, the returns, investments and transactions referred to in this sub-section; and
(f) meet with the chief internal auditor or the manager or employee of the bank acting in a similar capacity, and with the management, to discuss the effectiveness of the internal control procedures as practiced in the bank.

(3) To ensure the proper discharge of its responsibilities under subsection (2), the audit committee or any member thereof may initiate inquiries and, upon majority vote of the committee, retain at the expense of the bank any expert legal, accounting and auditing advisers that the committee may reasonably require and the audit committee shall report in writing to the board of directors the findings of any such inquiry undertaken by it.

(4) The audit committee shall report to the directors before any approval required by this Act or the regulations under this Act is given by the board to any financial statement of the bank.

(5) The audit committee may call a meeting of the board to consider any matter of concern to the committee.

(6) The audit committee shall meet at least once per quarter and at such other times as the board of directors may by resolution require, or as any member of the committee may request.

(7) A resolution of the audit committee shall require the affirmative votes of two members in order to pass.

(8) A member of the committee who votes against a resolution that is carried by a majority vote shall provide a written statement to the board of directors explaining the reasons for that dissent.

(9) The directors of a bank or financial institution shall submit a certificate of compliance with this section to the Bank of Zambia within six months after the end of each financial year or such other period as the Bank of Zambia may allow or at such other times as the Bank of Zambia may require in any particular case.

(10) The Bank of Zambia may, in respect of any category of financial institutions as it may specify, allow the board to carry out such functions provided for in this section as it may determine.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Application of Part 2 to financial institutions

CHAPTER VI
SUPERVISION AND PRUDENTIAL REGULATION

Part 1 - Provisions Relating to Banks and Financial Institutions

Reserves

69. (1) A bank or financial institution shall maintain a reserve account and before declaring any dividend shall transfer to its reserve account, out of the net profits of each year after due provision has been made for taxation, the minimum amount prescribed by the Bank of Zambia.

(2) The Bank of Zambia may by regulation prescribe the amount required to be transferred to the reserve account, the method of computing that amount, the form of the reserve account and any other matter it considers necessary to give effect to this section.

(3) No bank or financial institution shall declare, credit or pay any dividend or make any other transfer from surplus if to do so would result in an impairment of the capital adequacy requirements of this Act.

(4) No bank or financial institution shall, without the approval of the Bank of Zambia, declare, credit or pay any dividend or make any transfer from surplus if to do so would result in the impairment of the reserve account requirements of this Act.

(5) The Bank of Zambia may permit a reduction of the reserve account when the relevant payment or transfer is made for the purpose of increasing the capital, and when the Bank of Zambia is satisfied that is the only practicable means of preventing an impairment of the bank’s or financial institution’s capital or of enabling the bank or financial institution to make provisions that the Bank of Zambia considers to be necessary.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Liquid assets

70. (1) Every bank or financial institution shall at all times maintain liquid assets amounting to not less than such percentage of its total liabilities to the public in Zambia as the Bank of Zambia may by instrument in writing prescribe specifically for it or, in default of such prescription, as the Minister, on the recommendation of the Bank of Zambia, may by regulation prescribe for banks of its class or description:

Provided that -
(a) the percentage in either manner prescribed shall not be greater than fifty per centum;
(b) the distribution of amounts between the various classes of liquid assets may be made at the discretion of each bank; and
(c) no bank may be required to maintain any higher percentage than any other bank of the same class or type.

(2) Any variation in a regulation made for the purposes of subsection (1) shall take effect -
(a) if it provides for a decrease, immediately; or
(b) if it provides for an increase, only after reasonable notice thereof has been given in writing to each bank affected by the variation, and only if the variation does not increase the liquid asset requirement of any bank or financial institution by more than fifteen per centum.

(3) For the purpose of this section “liquid assets” means assets that are transferable free of any charge or lien whatsoever and that are of the classes described in the Second Schedule to this Act.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Prudential liquidity ratio

70A. The assets and liabilities for the computation of the prudential liquidity ratio for the categories of financial institutions set out in the First Schedule shall be as set out in the Third Schedule.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Deficiency of liquid assets or prudential liquidity ratio

Act No. 43 of 1996
Where the liquid assets of a bank are, or the prudential liquidity ratio of a financial institution is, less than the amount for the time being prescribed in respect of it, the Bank of Zambia may order the bank or financial institution to pay to the Bank of Zambia, as a fine, interest on the amount of the deficiency, with respect to each day or part of a day that the deficiency continues, at an annual rate not exceeding the highest annual rate fixed, at the time of the deficiency, by the Bank of Zambia under the Bank of Zambia Act for any of its operations.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Prohibition of unsecured borrowing

A bank or financial institution shall not -

(a) mortgage, charge or grant security to any person over any asset of the bank otherwise than -

(i) in the ordinary course of business; or

(ii) to the Bank of Zambia to secure short-term liquidity advances made by it under the Bank of Zambia Act; or

(b) acquire an asset that is subject to a mortgage, charge or other security interest in favour of any person, except to satisfy a debt or other liability to it.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Limitations on granting advances

(1) A bank or financial institution shall not, directly or indirectly, except as provided in the Fourth Schedule, grant any advance, or make any guarantee of the debts of any person or common enterprise so that the total value of any such advances and guarantees with or in respect of any one person or common enterprise is at any time more than twenty-five per centum of the regulatory capital of the bank or financial institution.

(2) A bank or financial institution shall not, directly or indirectly, grant any advance against the security of its own shares.

(3) A bank or financial institution shall not, directly or indirectly, except with the prior written approval of the Bank of Zambia and on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed, grant or permit to be outstanding any secured or unsecured advances to -

(a) its directors, whether such advances are obtained by them jointly or severally;

(b) any person who has de jure or de facto control of the bank or financial institution; or

(c) any body of persons of which any one or more of its directors has de jure or de facto control or is a director, partner, manager, agent or member; in an aggregate amount in excess of twenty-five per centum of its primary capital.
(4) A bank or financial institution shall not, directly or indirectly, except with the prior written approval of the Bank of Zambia and on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed, grant or permit to be outstanding to a chief executive officer, chief financial officer, manager or employee of the bank or financial institution unsecured advances, which in the aggregate exceed their respective annual remunerations.

(5) A bank or financial institution shall not, directly or indirectly, without the prior written approval of the Bank of Zambia and on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed, engage in any trade or business except the business or businesses for which it is licensed, except in so far as may be necessary for a temporary period (and in any event for not longer than twelve months or such longer period as the Bank of Zambia may allow) in the conduct of its business or to obtain the satisfaction of debts due to it.

(6) A bank or financial institution shall not, directly or indirectly, without the prior written approval of the Bank of Zambia and on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed, acquire ownership or any interest in any commercial, agricultural, industrial or other business undertaking, except such interest as it may acquire for the purpose of securing or satisfying a debt or other liability payable to it and which is disposed of within two years or subsequently continued with the prior consent of the Bank of Zambia.

(7) A bank or financial institution shall not, directly or indirectly, except with prior written approval of the Bank of Zambia and on such terms and conditions as prescribed, purchase, lease or otherwise acquire an interest in real property except -

(a) as may be reasonably necessary for the purpose of conducting its business, including provision for future expansion and providing housing accommodation for its officers and employees; or

(b) as may be reasonably necessary for the purpose of securing or satisfying a debt or other liability to it and which is disposed of within two years or subsequently continued with the prior consent of the Bank of Zambia.

(8) A bank shall not, directly or indirectly, without the prior written approval of the Bank of Zambia and on such terms and conditions as the Bank of Zambia may prescribe lease or otherwise contract to make available to any person in consideration of periodic payments or of rent or other instalment payment terms, any personal property owned by it; but nothing in this subsection shall prevent a bank from lending on the security of any personal property and taking title thereto for such purpose, including the purpose of satisfying a debt or obligation to it, if the lease or other arrangement is disposed of within two years or subsequently continued with the prior consent of the Bank of Zambia.

(9) In the application of the limitations imposed by subsections (1) and (3), if the Bank of Zambia determines that a group of two or more persons to whom any grants, advances or guarantees have been or are to be made are a common enterprise or are so inter-related that they should be considered as a unit, the total indebtedness of that group shall, if the Bank of Zambia by notice served on the bank or financial institution concerned so provides, be combined and shall be deemed to be the indebtedness of a single person:
Provided that a bank or financial institution shall not be taken to have contravened subsection (1) or (3) by virtue of a determination under this subsection, if the bank or financial institution disposes of the indebtedness of the group, to the extent that it exceeds the relevant limitation, within such reasonable time as the Bank of Zambia may determine.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Constraints on contracts with related persons

74. (1) For the purpose of this section, each person referred to in subsection (3) of section seventy-three is designated a “related person”.

(2) A bank or financial institution may enter into a contract with a related person only if -
   (a) the board of directors approves of the contract in advance and the contract is on terms no less favourable to the bank or financial institution than the terms of similar contracts that are entered into by the bank or financial institution with persons who are not related; or
   (b) the contract is for a nominal sum or is of a class or type exempted by the Bank of Zambia.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Limitations on equity investments

75. (1) A bank or deposit-taking financial institution shall not invest in an equity interest in any person, property or undertaking in an amount exceeding fifteen per centum of the total of all equity interests in the person, property or undertaking.

(2) The aggregate investment in equity interests of persons, properties or undertakings by a bank or deposit taking financial institution shall not exceed twenty-five per centum of its regulatory capital.

(3) A bank or deposit-taking financial institution shall not acquire an equity interest in any single person, property or undertaking where the value of the bank’s or deposit-taking financial institution’s equity exceed twenty-five per centum of its regulatory capital.
(4) A bank or deposit-taking financial institution shall not acquire an equity interest in any single person, property or undertaking in which an insider has a related interest that exceeds ten per centum of the bank’s or deposit-taking financial institution’s regulatory capital.

(5) Subsection (1) does not apply to an investment or investments by a bank or deposit-taking financial institution in the shares of its subsidiary, if the aggregate of all investments by the bank or deposit-taking financial institution does not exceed twenty-five per centum of its regulatory capital.

(6) The Bank of Zambia shall prescribe a period within which a bank or deposit-taking financial institution which is in breach of any of the provisions of this section on the coming into force of this Act shall be required to comply with this section.

(7) Subsection (1) does not apply to an acquisition by a bank or deposit-taking financial institution of an equity interest in realisation of any part of the collateral provided to the bank or deposit-taking financial institution in a credit transaction with any person, if the bank or deposit-taking financial institution, within two years following its acquisition or such longer period as the Bank of Zambia may allow, disposes of any equity interest in excess of the limits imposed by this section.

(8) In this section -

(a) “equity interest in a person” means -

(i) in the case of a company, any share issued by the company, the terms of which entitle the registered holder or bearer to a share in the profits of the company; or

(ii) in the case of a partnership, association or other body or persons acting in concert, any right to share in the profits of the person;

(b) “equity interest in a property or undertaking” means an ownership interest and includes any right to share in the profits of the operation or proceeds of disposition of the property or undertaking; and

(c) in subsection (4), “insider” means

(i) any officer, director or principal shareholder of a company licensed as a bank or of a financial institution;

(ii) any person who participates or has the authority to participate in major policy making functions of a company licenced as a bank or of a financial institution whether employed or not by that bank or financial institution;

(iii) a bank or financial institution in which a person referred to in subparagraph (i) or (ii) owns directly or indirectly, along or together with one or more other persons falling within the meaning of any of those subparagraphs, more than twenty per centum of the shares; or
(iv) a company in which a bank or a financial institution owns more than ten per centum of the outstanding shares.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Unclaimed funds or personal property.
76. (1) Any funds held or owed by a bank or financial institution under the circumstances set out in paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (2) or any funds or personal property referred to in paragraph (c) of that subsection shall be presumed abandoned upon the expiration of the respective periods provided for in that subsection and if the person in whose name the funds were, or the personal property was, held does not respond to a notice in writing sent by the bank or financial institution by prepaid registration post to the last known address of the person in the records of the bank or financial institution.

(2) Subsection (1) applies to -

(a) any demand, savings or matured time deposit together with any interest or dividend thereon, excluding any charges that may lawfully be withheld, in respect of which the owner has not, within the last ten years -

(i) increased or decreased the amount of the deposit, or presented the passbook or other similar evidence of the deposit for the crediting of interest or dividends;

(ii) corresponded in writing with the bank or financial institution; or

(iii) otherwise indicated an interest in the deposit as evidenced by a memorandum on file with the bank or financial institution;

(b) any funds paid towards the purchase of a share or other interest in a security issued by a bank or financial institution and any interest or dividends relating thereto excluding any charges that may lawfully be withheld, in respect of which the owner has not, within the last ten years -

(i) increased or decreased the amount of the funds or deposit;

(ii) corresponded in writing with the bank or financial institution; or

(iii) otherwise indicated an interest in the funds as evidenced by a memorandum in the records of the bank or financial institution; and

(c) any funds or other personal property removed from a safe deposit box or any other safekeeping facility on which the lease or rental period has expired due to the non-payment of rental charges or by reason of some other default by the lessee or any surplus amounts arising from the sale of the property in accordance with the law, that have been unclaimed by the owner for more than ten years from the date on which the lease or rental period expired.
(3) A bank or financial institution holding funds or personal property presumed abandoned under this section shall report to the Bank of Zambia on the amount and nature of such funds or property in such form and at such time as may be prescribed by the Bank of Zambia, and shall pay the funds or relinquish the property to the Bank of Zambia upon expiration of the time provided by this section for the presumption of abandonment to arise.

(4) A bank or financial institution shall retain its records concerning funds paid or property relinquished by it under subsection (3).

(5) A person whose funds have been paid or whose property has been relinquished to the Bank of Zambia in accordance with this section may claim the funds from the Bank of Zambia within a period of six years from the date of receipt of the funds or the property by the Bank of Zambia.

(6) No acting to recover, and no other action in respect of any funds or property presumed abandoned and paid in or relinquished in accordance with this section may be brought against the paying bank or against the Bank of Zambia after the sixth year following payment or relinquishing to the Bank of Zambia, but where the Bank of Zambia considers it desirable, to avoid hardship or injustice, the Bank of Zambia may make a payment to a claimant in respect of funds or property presumed abandoned or may restore the property to that person.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Unsafe and unsound practices

77. (1) Where, in the opinion of the Bank of Zambia, a bank or financial institution is committing or pursuing or is about to commit or pursue on behalf of the bank or financial institution any act or course of conduct that is considered by the Bank of Zambia as unsafe or unsound practice, the Bank of Zambia may enter into one or more written agreements with the bank or financial institution or its board of directors to establish a programme of action to counteract the unsafe or unsound practice and to establish or maintain safe and sound practices in the conduct of the business of the bank or financial institution.

(2) Where the Bank of Zambia is unable to obtain an agreement under subsection (1) within a time, and in a form and content, satisfactory to the Bank of Zambia, or where the Bank of Zambia considers that the need for prompt action makes the negotiating of such an agreement impractical, the Bank of Zambia may direct the bank or financial institution or any director, manager or other person concerned in its management to do either or both of the following:

(a) cease or refrain from doing the act or pursuing the course of conduct;

(b) perform such acts as, in the opinion of the Bank of Zambia are necessary to rectify
(3) In particular, but without limiting the generality of subsection (2), the Bank of Zambia may -

(a) direct the bank or financial institution to refrain from adopting or pursuing a particular course of action or to restrict the scope of its business in a particular way;
(b) impose any limitation on the bank’s acceptance of deposits or the payment of interest thereon, the granting of credit, the making of investments or the payment of dividends;
(c) prohibit the bank or financial institution from soliciting deposits or the payment of the interest thereon either generally or from specified persons or classes or persons;
(d) prohibit the bank or financial institution from entering into any other transaction or class of transactions, or from commencing or continuing any activity which it is permitted under this Act to carry on; or
(e) require the suspension or removal from office of any director, officer or other person.

(4) Directions given under this section shall be given by notice in writing to the bank or financial institution or person concerned and may in like manner be varied or revoked.

(5) A direction given under this section shall be effective immediately and shall remain in effect in accordance with its terms unless discontinued on appeal.

(6) Any person acting in contravention of the provisions of an agreement made or direction given under this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a penalty not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.

(7) An appeal lies under Chapter VIII against a decision of the Bank of Zambia to give a direction under this section.

(8) The Minister may, in consultation with the Bank of Zambia, prescribe Acts which constitute unsafe or unsound practice.

(9) A person shall not carry out any unsafe or unsound practice.

(10) A person who carries out any unsafe or unsound practice commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or imprisonment not exceeding three years or to both.

(As amended by Act No. 13 of 1994 and No. 18 of 2000)

Inspection of banks and financial institutions
Act No. 43 of 1996

78. (1) The Bank of Zambia may cause an inspection to be made of a bank or financial institution to determine whether it is in a sound financial condition and operating safely and that the requirements of this Act, the Bank of Zambia Act and other laws of Zambia have been complied with in the conduct of its business.

(2) When, in conducting an inspection of a bank or financial institution under this section, the Bank of Zambia considers it necessary to do so, the Bank of Zambia may at the same time cause a like inspection to be made of any other company in Zambia that is a subsidiary, associate or affiliate of the bank or financial institution concerned.

(3) The Bank of Zambia may order an inspection at any time it considers appropriate and may charge such inspection fees for the inspection as may be prescribed by the Bank of Zambia.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Scope of inspection

79. (1) A bank or financial institution shall:

(a) produce, and cause each company that is a subsidiary affiliate or associate of the bank or financial institution to produce, for the inspection of any inspector appointed by the Bank of Zambia, at such times as the inspector specifies, all books, accounts and records relating to its business in Zambia or elsewhere; and

(b) supply all information concerning its business in Zambia as may reasonably be required by the inspector within such time as the inspector specifies.

(2) Where the most recent report of the auditor of a bank or financial institution contains information that the Bank of Zambia reasonably considers justifies an inspection of the bank or financial institution to be conducted, the auditor shall co-operate with officials of the Bank of Zambia or the examiner to investigate, and in that connection, the auditors shall, at the request of the Bank of Zambia, produce any books, accounts and records in the possession of the auditor that, in the auditor’s or the Bank of Zambia’s opinion, would be of assistance in the investigation.

(3) The Bank of Zambia may from time to time arrange meetings with the auditor, or with the auditor and officers of the bank, to discuss any matter relevant to the Bank of Zambia’s supervisory responsibilities which may have arisen in the course of the statutory audit of the bank.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Inspection of representative offices

80. (1) The Bank of Zambia shall from time to time, make or cause to be made such inspection into the operation of representative offices and the conduct of the personnel in those offices as may be necessary for the purpose of ascertaining whether the offices are being operated, and the personnel of those offices are performing their functions, in conformity with this Act.
For the purposes of an inspection, the chief representative or other person in charge of the representative office shall allow the Bank of Zambia or any person acting under its authority to have access during normal business hours to the premises of the representative office and to any information required by the Bank of Zambia.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Duty to provide information and documents relating to representative offices

80A. (1) The Bank of Zambia may, by notice in writing, require a foreign bank or financial institution which has a representative office in Zambia to provide the Bank of Zambia with such information or documents as the Bank of Zambia may reasonably require.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the Bank of Zambia may by notice in writing, from time to time, require a foreign bank or financial institution which has a representative office in Zambia and is authorised to take deposits or conduct banking business by the relevant supervisory authority outside Zambia, to deliver to the Bank of Zambia within a specified period, a certified copy of any certificate from that authority conferring the authorization.

(3) If at any time a certificate of authorization of which a copy was required to be delivered to the Bank of Zambia under subsection (2) is amended or the authorization is withdrawn, the foreign bank of financial institution shall, not later than one month after the amendment or withdrawal, deliver to the Bank of Zambia a copy of the amended certificate or, as the case may be, a notice stating that the authorization has been withdrawn.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Supervisory actions

81. (1) Where -

(a) a bank or financial institution refuses to comply with an order or directive of the Bank of Zambia under this Act;

(b) a bank or financial institution refuses to permit an inspection to be made as provided by this Act or obstructs an inspection;

(c) in the opinion of the Bank of Zambia, an inspection instituted under this Act shows -

(i) that the bank or financial institution concerned conducts its business in breach of any written law or engages in a course of conduct that is unsafe or unsound;

(ii) that for any reason the bank or financial institution is unable, or is likely to become unable, to continue its operations in the ordinary course of its business;
(iii) the bank or financial institution’s capital is less than the prescribed minimum;
or
(iv) the bank or financial institutions insolvent; the Bank of Zambia shall take supervisory action against the bank or financial institution.

(2) The supervisory action the Bank of Zambia may take includes -

(b) suspending the bank’s or financial institution’s licence for a period not exceeding six months;
(c) restricting the bank’s or financial institution’s licence; and
(d) revoking the bank’s or financial institution’s licence.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (c) of subsection (2), the Bank of Zambia may, by notice in writing served on a bank or financial institution, vary the conditions of its licence so as to impose any restriction.

(4) The Bank of Zambia shall, in writing, inform the Minister, regarding the state of affairs of a bank or financial institution in respect of which it intends to take action under this section.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Special reserve or liability insurance

82. A bank or financial institution shall -
(a) maintain a special reserve account, to an amount which the Bank of Zambia considers adequate, reserved exclusively for the purpose of making good any loss resulting from the negligence or dishonesty of any of its directors, chief executive officer, chief financial officer, manager, or employees.
(b) insure itself against such loss, to an amount which the Bank of Zambia considers adequate, with a person approved by the Bank of Zambia carrying on insurance business or the business of guaranteeing against such loss; or
(c) undertake such other commitment as the Bank of Zambia may consider acceptable for the purpose of this section.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Capital adequacy

83. (1) The Bank of Zambia shall, by Gazette Notice prescribe the minimum required primary capital for banks and for every category of financial institution.
(2) Every bank or financial institution shall maintain primary capital in an amount at least equal to the minimum amount prescribed by the Bank of Zambia in accordance with subsection (1).
(3) The minimum required primary capital of a bank or financial institution -
(a) shall be of such kinds, computed in such manner and of such amounts as prescribed by the Bank of Zambia, having due regard to internationally accepted guidelines, and the nature of the bank’s or financial institution’s business;

(b) may include such part of the bank’s or financial institution’s reserve account, undivided profits, retained income and other reserves as may be prescribed by the Bank of Zambia; and

(c) may be fixed with reference to such of the assets and contingent liabilities or other exposures of the bank or financial institution or to such portion, type or class thereof, as may be prescribed by the Bank of Zambia.

(4) The minimum required regulatory capital to be prescribed by the Bank of Zambia shall not be less than six per centum of a bank’s or financial institution’s assets, contingent liabilities and other exposures and shall be calculated as may be prescribed by the Bank of Zambia.

(5) A bank or financial institution shall not issue any share in its capital or other security (other than a bonus share or share in lieu of dividend or other prescribed security) unless it receives the full-face amount thereof in Zambia Kwacha.

(6) Any person acting in contravention of this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to both.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Part 2 - Taking Possession of Banks and Financial Institutions

Notice of taking possession

84. When taking possession of a bank or financial institution under paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section eighty-one, the Bank of Zambia shall post in each branch of the bank or financial institution a notice announcing its action and specifying the date, hour and minute at which the possession takes effect; and if the taking of possession is attributable to insolvency, the Bank of Zambia shall transmit a copy of the notice to the court.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Powers and duties of the Bank of Zambia upon taking possession

84A. The Bank of Zambia upon taking possession of a bank or financial institution under paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section eighty-one shall be vested with full and exclusive powers of management and control of the bank or financial institution, including the power -

(a) to continue or discontinue any operations;

(b) to borrow money, whether or not on the security of the assets of the bank or financial institution;

(c) to stop or limit the payment of any obligation, including interest;
(d) to employ, re-employ or retain in employment any officer, employee or professional advisor the Bank of Zambia considers necessary;

(e) to execute any instrument in the name of the bank or financial institution and to initiate or defend and conduct in the name of the bank or financial institution any action or legal proceedings;

(f) to terminate the employment of any director, chief executive officer, chief financial officer, manager or employee;

(g) to terminate the interests of the shareholders at a value to be determined by the court; and

(h) to enforce the individual liability of the directors and of the shareholders of the bank or financial institution incurred in the ordinary course of business and on unpaid shares.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Statement of affairs of assets and liabilities upon taking possession
84B. Upon taking possession of a bank or financial institution, the Bank of Zambia shall prepare a statement of affairs of the assets and liabilities and shall within ninety days from the effective date of taking possession take any of the following action:

(a) where the statement of affairs of the assets and liabilities shows the bank or financial institution to be solvent -

(i) to restructure or reorganize the bank or financial institution;

(ii) to sell the bank or financial institution as a going concern;

(iii) to close the bank or financial institution;

(iv) to take any action which is necessary to enable the Bank of Zambia to carry out its functions under this Act; or

(b) where the bank or financial institution is insolvent, to take such action as it considers appropriate under Part 4 of Chapter VII.

Appeal for termination of possession
84C. Within a period of twenty-one days after the date on which the Bank of Zambia takes possession of a bank or financial institution, the bank or financial institution or any interested person acting on its behalf may institute proceedings in Court to require the Bank of Zambia to show cause why the possession should not be terminated.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Effect of possession
84D. (1) When the Bank takes possession of a bank or financial institution -

(a) any term, whether statutory or contractual, on the expiration of which a claim or right of the bank or financial institution would expire or be extinguished, shall be extended by six months from the date of such expiration or extinction;

(b) any attachment or lien (except an attachment or lien existing twelve months prior to the taking possession of the bank or financial institution) shall be vacated, and no attachment or lien except an attachment or lien created by the Bank of Zambia in carrying out its role of lender of last resort or an attachment or lien created in favour of a payment or settlement system, shall attach to any of the assets or property of the bank or financial institution so long as the possession continues; and

(c ) every payment or transfer of an asset or property of the bank or financial institution made with intent to effect a preference of the recipient over the other creditors of the bank or financial institution is void if so made within a period of twelve months before the Bank of Zambia takes possession of the bank or financial institution.

(2) Where a payment or transfer referred to in paragraph (c ) of subsection (1) has the effect of preferring the recipient, it shall be presumed to have been made with that intent, except in the case of-

(a) a payment made to a creditor in the ordinary course of business to discharge in whole or in part a debt or other liability of the bank or financial institution to the recipient; or

(b) a transfer of an asset or property made in a current exchange for valuable consideration equal to the fair market value of the asset or property transferred.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Restructuring and reorganisation

84E. (1) Where the Bank of Zambia, acting under paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section eighty-four B decides to commence the restructuring or reorganisation, or both, of a bank or financial institution, the Bank of Zambia shall, after granting a reasonable opportunity for a hearing of all interested parties, send a copy of the restructuring or reorganisation plan to each depositor and any other creditor who, under the plan, would not receive full payment.

(2) The copy of the restructuring or reorganisation plan shall be accompanied by a notice stating that, if the plan is not refused in writing within a period of thirty days by persons holding at least one-third of the aggregate amount of the deposits and creditors comprising at least one-third in value of the aggregate of the claims of creditors (other than subordinated creditors), or if within the same period of thirty days no objection or appeal to a court has been made and the court does not order a stay of proceedings, the Bank of Zambia will proceed to carry out the restructuring or reorganisation.
Refusal of restructuring or reorganisation of plan

84F. Where depositors and other creditors refuse a restructuring or reorganisation plan prepared by the Bank of Zambia under this Part, or when in the course of restructuring or reorganisation it appears to the Bank that circumstances render the plan inequitable or its execution impossible or undesirable, the Bank of Zambia may -

(a) modify the plan; or

(b) order the compulsory liquidation of the bank or financial institution in accordance with Chapter VII.

Restriction as to execution

84G. (1) No writ of execution, attachment, garnishee order or other process of a similar nature shall be issued or made against the assets or property of a bank or financial institution in the possession of the Bank of Zambia.

(2) Where a creditor has issued or made a writ of execution, attachment, garnishee order or other process of a similar nature against the moveable or immovable property of a bank or financial institution or has attached any debt due to the bank or financial institution, the creditor shall not be entitled to retain the benefit of the execution or attachment unless the creditor has completed the execution or attachment before the date of the Bank of Zambia taking possession of the bank or financial institution.

Recovery of expenses

84H. All necessary and reasonable expenses incurred by the Bank of Zambia in the application of the provisions of this Chapter shall be defrayed from the funds of the bank or financial institution.

Appointment of agent by Bank of Zambia

84I. The Bank of Zambia may appoint an agent to carry out any of its functions under this Chapter.
Precedence of this Act
85. Where, in relation to banking business or financial service business any written law is inconsistent with this Act, the provisions of this Act shall, to the extent of the inconsistency, prevail.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Meaning of “insolvent”
86. For the purposes of this Chapter, a bank or financial institution is insolvent when it ceases to be able to meet its obligations as they fall due or when its assets are insufficient to meet its liabilities or the amount of its regulatory capital requirement prescribed by the Bank of Zambia of is nil or lower.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Acceptance of deposits by insolvent banks
87. (1) A bank or financial institution shall not, while insolvent:
   (a) receive any deposit; or
   (b) enter into any new, or continue to conduct any existing, banking or financial service business, as the case may be, except that which is incidental to the orderly realisation, conservation and preservation of its asset.

(2) A transaction with a depositor or a creditor and a settlement in a netting or gross settlement arrangement under the system of settlement approved by the Bank of Zambia or provided for in or under any written law shall not be treated as prohibited under subsection (1) only because of the insolvency of a bank or financial institution if the transaction or settlement took place prior to a resolution to liquidate the bank or financial institution or prior to the appointment of a receiver or the taking possession of the bank or financial institution by the Bank of Zambia; and

(3) A director, chief executive officer, chief financial officer, manager, or employee of a bank or financial institution who knows or, in the proper performance of his duties, could reasonably be expected to know of the insolvency of the bank or financial institution and who causes or permits any act in contravention of this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.

(As amended by Act No. 13 of 1994 and No. 18 of 2000)

Powers of Bank in relation to insolvent financial institutions
Cap. 388
Where a financial institution licensed under this Act becomes insolvent -

(a) if it is a company under the Companies Act, the Bank of Zambia shall take possession of the institution in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section eighty-one;

(b) if it is not a company under the Companies Act but is subject to the supervision or control of another authority, the Bank of Zambia shall revoke its licence and give directions to the appropriate authority to place the institution into liquidation or dissolution; or

(c) if it is a body established by written law, the Bank of Zambia shall revoke its licence and may recommend to the relevant authority that the institution be placed into liquidation or dissolution.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Part 2 - Voluntary Winding up and Liquidation

Approval of Bank of Zambia required for voluntary winding up

Cap 388

88. (1) A bank or financial institution shall not, except with the approval of the Bank of Zambia, pass any resolution for voluntary winding up or dissolution under the Companies Act; or under any other written law; and where a bank or financial institution passes a resolution for its voluntary winding up or dissolution, it shall record the date, hour and minute of the passing of the resolution.

(2) The Bank of Zambia shall grant approvals to a voluntary winding up on such terms and conditions as it may determine and only if it appears to the Bank of Zambia that the bank or financial institution is solvent and has sufficient liquid assets to repay its depositors and all its other creditors in full and without delay.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Duties of bank or financial institution on voluntary liquidation

89. (1) When a bank of financial institution has received approval from the Bank of Zambia for voluntary winding up or dissolution, it shall -

(a) immediately surrender its licence to the Registrar, cease to do business and thereafter exercise its powers only to the extent necessary to effect its orderly winding up or suspension.
(b) repay in full its depositors and other creditors; and
(c) wind up, all operations undertaken prior to the receipt of the approval.

(2) A director, chief executive officer, chief financial officer, manager or employee of a bank or financial institution who knows or, in the proper performance of his duties, could reasonably be expected to know of the insolvency of the institution and who causes or permits any act in contravention of this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.

(As amended by Act No. 13 of 1994 and No. 18 of 2000)

Notice of voluntary winding up or dissolution and liquidation

90. (1) Within fourteen days after receiving approval for its voluntary winding up or dissolution, a bank or financial institution shall by registered mail notify -

(a) every depositor and other creditor of the bank or financial institution; and
(b) any person otherwise entitled to any funds or property held by the bank or financial institution as a trustee, fiduciary, lessor of a safe-keeping facility or bailee, of its intention to wind up.

(2) A notice for the purpose of subsection (1) shall set forth such information as the Bank of Zambia may require by notice to the bank or financial institution concerned.

(3) A copy of the bank’s or financial institution’s notice shall be kept displayed in a conspicuous place in the public part of each branch of the bank or financial institution and the bank or financial institution shall publish it in the Government Gazette and in a newspaper of general circulation throughout Zambia.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Rights of depositors and creditors

91. (1) The approval by the Bank of Zambia under this Part for the voluntary winding up or dissolution of a bank or financial institution shall not prejudice the rights of a depositor or other creditor to payment in full of a claim nor the right of an owner of funds or other property held by the bank or financial institution to the return thereof.

(2) All lawful claims shall be paid promptly and all funds and other property held by the bank or financial institution shall be returned to their rightful owners within such maximum period as the Bank of Zambia may in writing direct.
92. Distribution of assets on voluntary liquidation

(1) Where in the opinion of the Bank of Zambia a bank or financial institution has discharged all the obligations referred to under section eighty-nine, the remainder of its property shall be distributed to its rightful owner or owners.

(2) Distribution under subsection (1) shall not be made before -

(a) all claims of depositors and other creditors have been paid in full or, in the case of a disputed claim, the bank or financial institution has turned over to the Bank of Zambia funds sufficient in the opinion of the Bank of Zambia, to meet any liability that may be judiciary determined; and

(b) any funds payable to a depositor or other creditor who has not claimed them have been turned over to the Bank of Zambia to be dealt with as unclaimed funds in accordance with this Act.

93. Powers of Bank of Zambia if assets insufficient or completion unduly delayed

If the Bank of Zambia finds that the assets of a bank or financial institution whose voluntary winding-up or liquidation or dissolution, it has approved will not be sufficient for the full discharge of all its obligations or that completion for the winding-up or liquidation or dissolution is unduly delayed, it may, if it considers it proper to do so, take possession of the bank or financial institution.

101 Power of Bank to appoint agent

(1) The Bank of Zambia may, by resolution, order the compulsory liquidation, winding up or dissolution of a bank or financial institution; and where the Bank of Zambia makes an order under this subsection, it shall record the date, hour and minute of the passing of the resolution.

(2) Upon making an order under subsection (1), the Bank of Zambia shall notify each director, shareholder, other owner, depositor and other creditor of the bank or financial institution and every other interested party of the order by Power of Bank to appoint agent written notice to such of those persons for whom the Bank of Zambia discovers a name and address, and by published or other form of public notice.

(3) Each person notified shall have a period of thirty days to file an objection or appeal to the Court.

(4) The Court shall render its decision in any such application or appeal within a period of thirty days after the end of the period during which objections to the liquidation were admissible and in so doing may make any order it considers just in the circumstances.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

102. The Bank of Zambia may appoint an agent to carry out any of its functions under this Part.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Effect of order of compulsory dissolution etc.

103. Sections eighty-four D, eighty-four G and eighty-four H shall apply to a bank or financial institution in respect of which an order under section one hundred and one has been made by the Bank of Zambia in the same manner as they apply to a bank or financial institution under possession by the Bank of Zambia.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Powers of Bank of Zambia in effecting compulsory liquidation, etc.

104. (1) In effecting a compulsory liquidation, winding up or dissolution of a bank or financial institution under this Act, the Bank of Zambia may, in addition to any other powers, exercise any of the powers, whether express or implied, of the bank or financial institution concerned.

(2) Upon an order for compulsory liquidation, winding up or dissolution -

(a) every contract of employment of any person with the bank or financial institution shall terminate with effect from the date on which the order comes into effect; and

(b) the Bank of Zambia may terminate -

(i) any contract for the provision of goods or services to which the bank or financial institution is a party; or

(ii) any obligation of the bank or financial institution as a lessee of real property; but a lessor to whom the Bank of Zambia gives not less than ninety days’ notice of termination of the lease shall have no claim for rent other than rent accrued and outstanding on the date of termination of the lease, nor any claim for damages
(3) After the decision to liquidate, wind up or dissolve a bank or financial institution, the Bank of Zambia shall -

(a) take any necessary steps to terminate all fiduciary functions performed by the bank or financial institution, return to each owner all assets and property held by the bank or financial institution as a fiduciary in relation to the owner, and settle its fiduciary account; and

(b) cause to be made available at each branch for collection by each depositor, other creditor, safe-keeping services customer and bailor of property held by the bank or financial institution, a statement (in this Part called “the customer’s statement”) of the nature and amount for which each one’s claim is shown in the bank’s or financial institution’s records, and cause to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in Zambia, a notice informing all such persons of the availability for collection of the statement at their respective branches.

(4) The customer’s statement shall note that any claim must be filed with the Bank of Zambia before a specified date not earlier than sixty days thereafter and shall call upon safe-keeping services customers and bailors to withdraw their property.

(5) Any property held in safe-keeping on the premises of the bank or financial institution that has not been withdrawn before the date specified in the customer’s statement shall be taken into possession by the Bank of Zambia in the manner prescribed by the Bank of Zambia.

(6) Any unclaimed funds and property held by the bank or financial institution as a bailee, together with inventories pertaining thereto, shall be deemed to be unclaimed funds for the purposes of the provisions of this Act dealing with unclaimed funds and shall be dealt with accordingly.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Limitation of filing of claims
105. Within six months after the last day specified in the customer’s statement for the filing of claims the Bank of Zambia shall -

(a) defer payment of any claim that is out of time and reject any claim that appears to be of doubtful validity;
(b) determine the amount, if any, owing to each known depositor or other creditor and the priority class of his claim in accordance with this Part;
(c) prepare for filing with the Court a Schedule of the steps it proposes to take (in this Part called a "liquidation schedule"); and
(d) notify each person whose claim has not been allowed in full and publish once in a week for three consecutive weeks, in a newspaper of general circulation in every place in Zambia where the bank or financial institution had a branch, a notice of the date and place where the liquidation schedule will be available for inspection, and the date, not earlier than thirty days after the date of the third publication of the notice, on which the Bank of Zambia will file the schedule with the Court.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Objections to liquidation schedule
106. (1) Within twenty days after the filing of the liquidation schedule, any depositor, other creditor or owner of a bank or financial institution, and any other interested party, may file with the Court an objection to any step proposed.

(2) Any objection so filed shall be considered by the Court, upon such notice to the Bank of Zambia and interested parties as the Court may by order direct to be given.

(3) If an objection is sustained, the Court shall direct that appropriate modification of the schedule be made.

(4) After filing the schedule the Bank of Zambia may, from time to time, make partial distribution to the holders of the claims which are undisputed or which have been allowed by the Court, on condition that a proper reserve is established for the payment of disputed claims.

(5) As soon as possible after all objections have been decided upon, the Bank of Zambia shall make final distribution.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Priority of creditors
107. (1) In any compulsory liquidation, winding up or dissolution of a bank or financial institution there shall be paid in priority to all other debts in the following order -

(a) necessary and reasonable expenses incurred by the Bank of Zambia in the application of the provisions of this Part;
(b) taxes and rates due, whether payable to the Government or to a local authority;
(c) wages and salaries of officers and employees of the bank or financial institution for the three-month period preceding the effective date of seizure, within the limit of an amount not exceeding one hundred thousand kwacha per person or such higher amount as may be prescribed by regulation;
(d) fees and assessments due to the Bank of Zambia;
(e) claims established under a deposit protection scheme;
(f) other deposits; or
(g) other claims against the bank in such order of priority as the Court may determine upon application by the Bank of Zambia.

(2) After payment of all claims submitted and accepted, the remaining claims which are not submitted within the time allowed under this Part shall be paid and thereafter interest if any, in the order of the priority of their submission and at a rate to be fixed by the Bank of Zambia.

(3) If the amount available for payment for any class of claims referred to in subsections (1) and (2) is insufficient to provide payment in full, the claims within a class shall abate pari passu; and for the purposes of this section each paragraph of subsection (1) constitutes a separate class of claims and the claims referred to in subsection (2) constitute another separate class of claims.

(4) If the amount available for payment for any class of claims listed under subsection (1) is insufficient to provide payment in full, the said claims shall abate in equal proportions.

(As amended by Act No. 28 of 1995 and No. 18 of 2000)

Accounts after distribution of assets

108. As soon as all assets of a bank or financial institution have been distributed as provided for in this Part, the Bank of Zambia shall render an account to the court and shall be relieved of any liability in connection with the winding up, dissolution or liquidation.

Unclaimed funds

109. Any unclaimed funds remaining after a final distribution provided for under this Part shall be taken into possession and held by the Bank of Zambia and subsequently dealt with in accordance with this Act.

Final distribution in compulsory liquidation

110. Any assets remaining after all claims have been paid upon compulsory liquidation of a bank or financial institution shall be distributed among the owners in accordance with their respective rights and interests.
Restriction of action by third parties
110A. Upon taking possession of a bank or financial institution by the Bank of Zambia under this Act, no proceedings may be instituted by any person, other than the Bank of Zambia, for the Liquidation, winding up, dissolution or other action of a similar nature.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Recovery of expenses
110B. All necessary and reasonable expenses incurred by the Bank of Zambia in the application of the provisions of this Chapter shall be defrayed from the funds of the bank or financial institution concerned.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

CHAPTER VIII

APPEALS

Reasons for decisions and right to be heard
111. (1) Where the Registrar or the Bank of Zambia makes any decision against which, as provided by this Act, an appeal lies under this Chapter, the Registrar or the Bank of Zambia as the case may require, shall, by notice in writing -

(a) inform the applicant or other person affected by the decision of the reasons for the decision; and

(b) invite the applicant or person to make such written representations as he wished within a time limited by the notice.

(2) The decision of the Registrar or of the Bank of Zambia shall remain in force unless reversed by the Registrar or by the Bank of Zambia, as the case may be, or set aside by the Tribunal on an appeal or by a court.

(3) The Registrar or the Bank of Zambia may, on receipt of any representations referred to in paragraph (b) of subsection (1), re-affirm, revoke or vary his or its decision and shall notify the applicant or other person accordingly.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Right of appeal
112. (1) If, after receipt of any representations from the applicant or person affected by its decision, the Registrar or the Bank of Zambia reaffirms his or its decision, the applicant or other person (hereinafter called the “appellant”) may, within seven days of receipt of the notice reaffirming the decision, notify the Minister that he desires to appeal against the decision.

(2) The decision of the Registrar or of the Bank of Zambia, as the case may be -

(a) does not take effect until the expiry of the period limited by subsection (1) for giving notice of an appeal; and

(c) where a notice of appeal is lodged within that time, is further stayed pending the outcome of the appeal.

Appointment and convening of Tribunal

113. Within seven days after receipt of a notice under subsection (1) of section one hundred and twelve, the Minister shall appoint and convene an Appeal Tribunal consisting of a Chairman who is an advocate of the High Court of not less than seven years’ standing and two other persons having qualifications and experience in relation to the matters involved in the appeal.

(Powers of Tribunal

114. (1) The Appeal Tribunal is to determine the appeal on its merits, having regard to the provisions of this Act and the public interest, and may confirm, vary or quash the decision the subject of the appeal.

(2) The Tribunal may determine its own procedure and is not bound by the rules of evidence, and may inform itself of any matter in such manner as it sees fit.

(3) The Appeal Tribunal shall afford the appellant the right to appear by himself or by counsel or agent.

Decisions of Tribunal

115. The decision of the Tribunal is final and binding on the parties to the appeal except as to any point of law, and in cases where the appeal is allowed, it is the duty of the Registrar or the Bank of Zambia as the case may require, to give effect to the decision of the Tribunal.

CHAPTER IX
MISCELLANEOUS
Investigations

116. (1) Whenever the Bank of Zambia has reason to believe that any person is carrying on banking business or financial service business on any premises without a licence or in contravention of the conditions of a licence, or for the purpose of ascertaining whether the provisions of this Act or the regulations under this Act are being complied with, the Bank of Zambia shall have the right by its servants or agents to enter the premises to ascertain the facts of the matter and may for that purpose -

(a) require any person apparently having access to them to deliver to the Bank of Zambia the books, accounts and records of the person; and

(b) examine any such books, accounts and records and take copies of or make extracts from them.

(2) A person who refuses to make available for examination the person’s books, accounts and records within five business days after having been duly requested to do so by the Bank of Zambia shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.

(As amended by the Act No. 13 of 1994)

Use of the word “bank”

117. (1) A person other than a bank shall not, without the consent of the Bank of Zambia, use the word “bank” or any of its derivatives in any language, or any other word or symbol indicating the transaction of banking business, in its name or in any prospectus, advertisement or statement of any kind published or made to describe its business in Zambia.

(2) A person shall not falsely represent to the public or any member of the public -

(a) that the person holds a licence to conduct any financial service business; or

(b) that the person is licensed to conduct any financial service business of a particular kind.

(3) Any person acting in contravention of this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years, or to both.

(As amended by Act No. 13 of 1994)

Misleading and unlicensed names

118. A licence shall not be granted to any person under a name that so closely resembles the name of an existing licensee as would be likely, in the opinion of the Registrar, to mislead the public, unless the person is associated or affiliated with the licensee or otherwise has the consent of the licensee.

Restriction on use or registration of banking and related names

119. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a person carrying on a business shall not use any name which indicates or may reasonably be understood to indicate (whether in English or in any other language) that the business is a bank or a financial institution or is carrying on banking business or financial service business unless the business is licenced under this Act.
(2) Subsection (1) -

(a) does not prohibit the use of the kind of name referred to in that subsection by a company or other entity incorporated or otherwise established outside Zambia and which has no permanent place of business in Zambia for the purposes of soliciting business or advertising its business in Zambia;

(b) does not apply to -

(i) a bank or financial institution established by or under a written law of Zambia;
(ii) a regional or international bank or financial institution whose membership consists partly or wholly of member States; or
(iii) such other person as the Minister may, by statutory instrument, exempt.

(3) An authority which, under any written law, is responsible for the registration of businesses or business names shall not register a business or the name of a business that would be in contravention of subsection (1).

(4) Where on the coming into force of this Act a business or the name of a business is already registered in a style that is otherwise prohibited by subsection (1), the authority responsible for the registration shall, within three months after the coming into force of this Act, notify the Bank of Zambia of the registration and order the owner of the business or the business name to alter or modify the name so as to comply with subsection (1).

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Validity of certain acts by banks

120. (1) A transaction entered into in contravention of this Act is not void or ineffective by reason only of the contravention, and is not voidable at the instance of the bank or financial institution, except in a court’s discretion.

(2) Subject to its memorandum and articles, it shall not be necessary for a bank or financial institution to pass a by-law in order to exercise any power conferred by this Act.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Documents

121. A bank or financial institution does not comply with a provision of this Act requiring it to furnish or supply a document to the Bank of Zambia unless -

(a) in the case of a document prepared by the bank of financial institution, the form or which has not been prescribed by regulation or by the Bank of Zambia, the document is -

(i) signed by the chief executive officer and the chief accounting officer of the bank or financial institution; or
(ii) signed by such other person as is required by a provision of this Act to sign or certify the document; and
(b) in the case of a document prepared by the bank or financial institution, the form of which has been prescribed by regulation or by the Bank of Zambia, the document is signed by the person holding the office or offices required by the text of the prescribed form.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Publication of information
121A. (1) The Bank of Zambia may publish in whole or in part, at such times as it may determine, any information or data furnished under this Act if the Bank of Zambia considers the publication to be in the public interest.

(2) The Bank of Zambia shall not reveal to any person any information regarding the affairs of any customer of a bank or financial institution obtained in the exercise of its functions under this Act unless lawfully required to do so.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Extension of time limits
122. At the request of a bank or financial institution or other person, the Bank of Zambia may extend from time to time any period within which a bank or financial institution is, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, obliged to furnish any document or information.

Immunity of Zambia officials, etc
123. No act, matter or thing done by any officer or person employed by the Bank of Zambia or by any other person in the exercise or performance or purported exercise or performance, in good faith, of any power or function under this Act shall give rise to any action, claim, liability, suit or demand against the officer or person concerned.

Regulations
124. (1) The Minister, on the recommendation of the Bank of Zambia, may make regulations for or with respect to any matter that by this Act is required or permitted to be prescribed by regulation or that is necessary or convenient to be so prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.

(2) The regulations may provide for fines not exceeding fifty thousand penalty units, and for terms of imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both, for any contravention of the regulations.

(As amended by Act No. 13 of 1994)
124A. Where a provision of this Act authorises the Bank of Zambia to prescribe anything, the power to prescribe shall be exercised by the publication of the matter by Gazette Notice.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Guidelines

The Bank of Zambia shall have power to prescribe and publish such guidelines, bulletins or other regulatory statements as the Bank of Zambia may consider necessary or desirable for the administration or execution of this Act.

Bank of Zambia’s report

126. (1) The Bank of Zambia shall, within six months from the 1st day of January in each year, submit to the Minister a report on the operations of banks and financial institutions in Zambia during the twelve months ended on the preceding 31st December.

(2) The Minister shall lay a copy of the report before the National Assembly within fourteen days of its receipt by him or, if the National Assembly is not then in session, within fourteen days after the commencement of its next sitting.

False documents

127. (1) Subject to subsection (2), if a person issues or takes part in the issue of a document referred to in this Act which is false in any material particular, that person and every other person who signed it shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both.

(2) A person shall not be guilty of an offence under this section if the person did not know and could not reasonably be expected to have known that the document was false when the person signed it, issued it or took part in its issue as the case may be.

(As amended by Act No. 13 of 1994)

Prohibition of money circulation schemes

127A. (1) A person shall not -

(a) conduct, or participate in, a money circulation scheme; or

(b) issue a notice, circular, prospectus, proposal or other document inviting the public to subscribe to a money circulation scheme.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty points or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding three years or to both.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Penalty for offences where no specific penalty provided

128. A person who commits an offence under this Act for which no penalty is specifically provided is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to both.

(As amended by Act No. 13 of 1994)

Offences by body of persons

129. (1) Where an offence under this Act is committed by a body of persons -

(a) in the case of a body corporate every director or like officer of the body commits the offence; and

(b) in the case of a partnership every partner commits the offence;

unless the director, or like officer of the body corporate or partner proves to the satisfaction of the court that the act constituting the offence was done without the knowledge, consent or connivance of that director, like officer, or partner and that the director, like officer or partner did their part to prevent the commission of the offence having regard to all the circumstances of the case.

(As amended by Act No. 13 of 1994)

Utilisation of collateral for settlement of certain obligations

129A. (1) Collateral held by the Bank of Zambia on behalf of a clearing house, a payment system or a payment association for the purpose of settling the obligations of a bank or financial institution which is a member of the clearing house, payment system or payment association shall be utilised for that purpose by the Bank of Zambia in accordance with the terms and conditions approved by the Bank of Zambia and shall not be subject to any claim.

(2) The Bank of Zambia shall be indemnified and a certificate issued by the Governor of the Bank of Zambia that the collateral or any part thereof has been utilised to meet the obligations of the clearing house, payment system or payment association shall be prima facie evidence of the matters stated in the certificate.

(3) In the case of a bank or financial institution in respect of which the winding up, dissolution or liquidation has commenced under this Act, the balance of the collateral, after the collateral has been utilised in accordance with subsection (1), shall be dealt with in accordance with Chapter VII.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

Exemptions

130. The Minister, on the recommendation of the Bank of Zambia, may by regulation, on such terms and conditions as the Minister considers appropriate, exempt any bank or financial institution from all or any of the provisions of this Act and may provide for the variation or revocation, by regulation or by notice in writing to the affected person or persons, of any such exemption at any time.

(As amended by Act No. 18 of 2000)

131. (1) The Banking Act is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding the repeal of the Banking Act -

(a) a commercial bank, within the meaning of that Act, that was, immediately before the commencement of this Act, registered as a bank under that Act shall be deemed to be the holder of a licence under section four of this Act that is subject to the same limitations and conditions as pertained to its registration;

(b) a financial institution, within the meaning of that Act, that was, immediately before the commencement of this Act registered as such under that Act shall be deemed to be the holder of a licence under section ten of this Act that is subject to the same limitations and conditions as pertained to its registration;

(c) any applications pending under that Act shall be deemed to have been made under the corresponding provisions of this Act, and shall be dealt with under this Act;

(d) any right or benefit accruing, or liability incurred, under that Act shall continue in accordance with and subject to this Act; and

(e) any regulation, order, notice or direction made or given and in force, immediately before the commencement of this Act, under that Act shall, unless contrary to this Act, continue in force until revoked, as if made or given under this Act.

(3) The Minister may by regulation make such savings and transitional provisions as he may consider just or expedient in consequence of the enactment of this Act and the repeal of the Banking Act.
